Additional copies of this Annual Report may be had of the Corresponding Secretary. These reports should be preserved from year to year. They are valuable for reference. The monthly issues of the AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY contain much valuable historical matter, and should be in the hands of every disciple. Send twenty-five cents to the editors for a year's subscription. The December number contains the Year Book.

That number is invaluable to all preachers and church officers as it contains a full list of our preachers in each State and Territory, together with much valuable statistical matter pertaining to the growth of the Lord's kingdom. It also contains lists of our missionaries in the home field and abroad, our papers and magazines, educational institutions, and the officers of our various co-operative organizations. Its publication is a necessity, since the railroad associations require a copy of an authenticated list of our workers and organizations, before extending any considerations. We wish the preachers would assist us in the circulation of the AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY.

Minutes of the Fifty-third Annual Convention of the American Christian Missionary Society, HELD AT OMAHA, NEB., OCT. 18-23, 1902.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18.—EVENING.

The fifty-third annual Convention of the American Christian Missionary Society met in Convention Hall, Omaha, Neb., Saturday evening, Oct. 18, 1902, H. O. Breeden, of Iowa, presiding.

W. E. M. Hackleman, of Indiana, conducted a service of song. J. H. Hardin, of Missouri, offered the opening prayer.

The following committees were appointed by the President:

Committee on Recommendations.—I. N. McCash, Chairman, Iowa; M. E. Harlan, New York; E. C. Sanderson, Oregon; I. J. Spencer, Kentucky; Sherman B. Moore, Georgia; O. H. Phillips, Pennsylvania.

Joint Committee on Resolutions.—L. L. Carpenter, Chairman, Indiana; C. B. Newnan, Michigan; Foreign Board—Bruce Brown, Colorado, and J. H. Mohorter, Massachusetts.

Committee on Nominations.—W. F. Richardson, Chairman, Missouri; D. Munro, Michigan; W. F. Cowden, Washington; Geo. B. Peak, Iowa; J. T. Boone, Florida; Mrs. Judge Haymaker, Kansas.

Committee on Christian Endeavor.—C. A. Freer, Chairman, Ohio; B. L. Allen, Indiana; Claude E. Hill, Missouri; W. B. Hastie, Iowa; Miss Anna Hale, Illinois; S. M. Bernard, Kentucky.

Committee on Boys' and Girls' Rally Day.—Howard C. Rash, Chairman, Kansas; O. P. Spiegel, Illinois; F. M. Tinder, Kentucky; R. H. Ingram, Iowa; E. J. Meacham, Ohio; A. M. Hootman, Indiana.

Order of Business.—Benjamin Lyon Smith, Harry G. Hill, W. T. Hilton.

Committee on Place of Next Meeting.—F. E. Udell, Chairman, Missouri; J. F. Ghormley, Oregon; E. C. Browning, Arkansas; Geo. P. Rutledge, Pennsylvania; J. G. Waggoner, Illinois; A. C. Corbin, Nebraska.

Prayer-meeting Committee (1902-03).—George Darsie, B. A. Abbott, W. A. Crusinberry, B. B. Tyler, A. C. Smither.

On motion of J. H. Hardin, a message of sympathy was sent by the Corresponding Secretary, Benjamin L. Smith, to Gen. F. M. Drake, who was detained from the Convention by an accident.

C. H. Plattenburg, of Ohio, delivered an address on "The Transforming Power of Christian Endeavor."

Claude E. Hill, of Missouri, and C. A. Freer, of Ohio, conducted a symposium on "Christian Endeavor among the Disciples of Christ During the Next Five Years."

Carey E. Morgan, of Virginia, addressed the Convention on "Christian Endeavor and the Church."

Adjourned with prayer.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21.—MORNING.

Chas. M. Fillmore, of Ohio, conducted a praise service at 9 A. M. Vice-Prest. T. E. Cramblet, of West Virginia, presided.

The President's adddress was given by H. O. Breeden, on "The Gospel for This Age."

The report of the Acting Board was reviewed by Corresponding Secretary, Benj. L. Smith. The report was as follows:

FIFTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ACTING BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO THE NATIONAL CONVENTION AT OMAHA, OCTOBER 16-23, 1902.

To the Convention, Greeting:

Dear Brothers and Sisters—In obedience to the requirement of the constitution, your Acting Board presents the following report concerning the trust committed to our hands the past year:

The good providence of God has brought us to our fifty-third Convention. It is a meeting of first importance. We are face to face with our destiny. We have come to the day of our visitation. Before us a great door and effectual is opened, an open door, and no man can shut it. There are many adversaries, but we need fear ourselves more than we need fear any adversaries. Our great danger is that we may fail to enter into the wide-open door of opportunities. We are face to face with our destiny—God is calling us by every voice of divine providence to enter into the possession of our inheritance. He is calling us by the cry of our own brethren from three hundred Macedonias: "Come over and help us." God is giving us the call of opportunity; ours are the most glorious possibilities that ever faced a people—the ripe harvest-fields of America awaiting the reapers. He is calling us again by bringing to our very doors the messengers of the peoples in what are called the foreign fields, and, as if wearying with our little plans, he challenges our fidelity by bringing about us the children of the heathen. The faith that will not win the Germans, the Scandinavians, the Mexicans, and all the other strangers within our gates, is too weak a faith to win in China, India, or the islands of the sea. Again, as if to quicken our zeal, the Lord God is calling us by the most remarkable growth to be found to-day in the religious world; we can truly say, "He hath not dealt so with any people." May the Lord meet with us in this great Convention; may he anoint our eyes with his divine touch, that we may see our opportunity.

Our fathers prayed "that God would open unto us a door of utterance to speak the mystery of Christ." That prayer has been answered. Shall the answer prove a blessing to the children of the Reformation? Or shall the sad lament, "If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong to thy peace! But now they are hid from thine eyes. . . . Because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation," be the judgment on our halting and delay?

But, Beloved, we are persuaded better things of you and things that accompany salvation. Let it be said in all candor, we are at length opening our eyes to America, the ripest mission field in the world; we have caught a vision of its glorious harvests, and we are becoming obedient to that heavenly vision; we are coming to know that it is only through America we can win the world to Christ, and our Home Mission work is slowly but surely coming to its own place in our heart's affections.

Our work is most effective when it is best understood. To have its true power, it must live in the hearts of the brethren, and only as we walk in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, shall we be led into those intimate experiences of service which are the earnest of true power and acceptable consecration. Behold the mountains of Lebanon, lifting their snow-capped peaks far above the clouds, catching the snows of God, that they may send them in hundreds of streams of living water to reclaim the desert for many miles around. O church of God, in this great Convention let us go up into this communion among the clouds, receive here the showers of blessings from the very face of the Father, and bear them back again into the weary wastes of life, God's life-giving truth, and the presence of his Holy Spirit.

ENTERED INTO LIFE.

But for a moment let us turn aside. Would that the records of the year were of unbroken victory. But now as always there is a strain of sadness in our anthem of rejoicing. Since we last met, some have ceased from their labors and rest with the Lord. Ere we rehearse the story of what the Lord has done for us in the home land, we pause to call the names of the beloved who have entered into life immortal.

The whole Church of Christ mourns the departure of Mrs. O. A. Burgess, president of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions; hers was truly the life beautiful, and hers the triumphant entrance into the land of the leal.

We also mourn with our sister Society the going hence of Neil MacLeod, a missionary of the Woman's Board in Jamaica.

Ohio notes the departure of John C. Irwine, a successful minister of the Word. Mrs. Isaac Errett, widow of our departed leader, has been reunited with her own in the better land. Mrs. J. F. Wright, widow of our former Auditor, has but lately been called home.

W. A. Belding, of Troy, N. Y., perhaps the most widely known, by face, of any of our pioneer preachers, who baptized over ten thousand souls into Christ, who served well his generation, has entered into rest, having passed the eighty-third anniversary of his birth.

Texas tells of the departure of Prof. Chas. Carlton, who was present at the organization of this Society in 1849; W. C. Dimmitt, successful as pastor at Sherman for fourteen years; Walter S. Knox, of Hermoson, a young preacher of promise, and Edwin C. Townsend, a devoted business man of Midland.

Kentucky tells of the departure of Judge John D. Ellis, the faithful elder; Mrs. Hattie L. Garnett, who left money to missions in memory of her husband; Mrs. W. T. Tibbs, Mrs. E. J. Reid and Mrs. B. C. Deweese, wives of faithful ministers; and former Gov. John F. Fisk and the faithful Henry Mavity.

Indiana names the loss of John C. Miller, David C. Hanselman and J. L. Parsons, all faithful and true men of God.

California reports the death of J. W. Ingram.

Virginia notes the departure of Prof. Chas. J. Kemper.

Pennsylvania speaks of the loss of John Newcomer, of Connellsville, a true lover of Jesus Christ and his cause.

Massachusetts speaks of the home-going of Mrs. Sophia P. Blaisdell, of Worcester, a faithful disciple, a strong supporter of the cause, who, dying, made the American Christian Missionary Society her residuary legatee.

Kansas sincerely mourns M. Ingles, for many years the Sunday-school evangelist of that State; an Israelite indeed, in whom there was no guile; a teacher of rare ability.

Missouri tells of the loss of Alexander Ellett, a pioneer preacher of commanding power in the brotherhood of that State.

Iowa notes the departure of F. G. Wilson, Joseph Peregrine, J. W. Vandewalker and R. B. Brown. These men were all preachers of righteousness who lived and loved the gospel they preached.

Thus year by year the heavens grow richer. We find amid the music of our earth life

"A sudden discord breaks the swelling strain.
Our chord has snapped; the harmony again
Subdued and slower moves, but never more
The same glad music as of yore;
Less and less full the strains awake.
Chord after chord must break and break
Until the earthly lyre, dumb and riven,
Finds all its chords restrung to loftier notes
In heaven."

SUMMARY OF WORK.

It is fitting we should pass in review the work our God, in his good providence, has wrought by the hands of his servants, your missionaries. Let us note the blessings that have attended their labors, and let us record our devout thanksgivings to him "whose we are and whom we serve," as we try to win America to the gospel of the Son of God. Our Captain is the Christ. He is at the head of our marching column. His blessings have been showered upon those congregations and those ministers who have come up to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty.

The Gospels of the life of our Lord are reports of heaven's greatest missionary campaign in its foundation. The Book of the Acts is the report of its enterprise and progress under those in touch with Jesus and his followers. The modern records are the supplements and sequences of these. Dry facts are the fuel for missionary fires.

We set before this people in Convention here assembled bare, dry facts, but facts indeed, which, touched by the coals from the altar fires of service, shall kindle into sweeping flames of holiest enthusiasm and consuming zeal each heart that loves the Master.

TABULATED RESULTS.

During the year we have assisted in the support of 274 missionaries, an increase of 49 over the number of any previous year. These missionaries have labored to an amount equal to 170 years, 4 months and 28 days. Have visited and assisted 947 places. Have organized or reorganized 101 churches; have received into the various churches 11,284 members, of which number 6,419 were by confession of faith in Christ as the divine Son of God and baptism into his name. Fifty-six houses of worship have been erected.

The year has shown a net increase in the spendable income of the Board. Our loss occurs in bequests and in special funds, like the fund for Galveston, Tex.; Jacksonville, Fla., etc. The increase in the General Fund was $6,579.67. For this we are truly thankful.

THE STATE BOARDS AND THEIR WORK.

There is a State Board of Missions in each of thirty-nine States. The summary of their work is: Missionaries employed, 418; churches and places helped, 1,277; members received into churches, 21,380; churches organized and reorganized, 172; amounts collected on fields for local work, $765,988.24; amounts for State Missions, $134,895.79.

Let us look at these figures with thankful hearts. They are without a parallel in missionary records for 1902, in the results obtained as compared with the amount of money expended. Nowhere else, and with nobody else on God's footstool, has the same amount of money produced the same results, in churches organized or in souls brought to Christ. Humbly let us bow before the sceptre that has through all the year directed our campaign and wrought through us such mighty victories to His own glory, and yield ourselves in deeper consecration to his service.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE TRUST.

Your Board regards the work committed to it as a trust to be carefully administered by those who must give an account to God and the brotherhood.

The constant care is to administer this trust conservatively, economically and faithfully. We are careful to avoid involving the Society in any heavy debt. We are anxious to answer as many of the calls coming to us as possible, and to this end we plan to keep the treasury nearly empty, using the money in the great needy fields as rapidly as we may be intrusted with it.

Your Board asks the careful study of this report. The splendid result achieved this year is a matter of supreme congratulation. Out of this blessing of God upon the work, so hampered and held back by lack of means. As shown in the ingathering of souls, the organization of new churches, we can find the breath of encouragement—the breath of the Spirit of God. It is interesting and instructive to watch the comparative tables of receipts from year to year, to note the growth and decline of the offerings. We give below a

From Churches	$32,393.95	$34,881.88	$39,761.27
From Bible-schools	2,778.87	3,674.54	4,647.72
From C. E. Societies	625.17	912.93	1,119.92
From L. A. & Other Societies..	578.60	437.70	293.00
From Individuals	6,975.07	4,406.76	4,307.95
From Other Sources, Interest and Permanent Funds ...	20,275.69	47,402.87	32,801.07
Total	$63,627.30	$91,716.68	$82,930.93

This is a loss of $8,322.24 as compared with the receipts of the previous year.

For these results we should thank our God for the fulfillment of his promise that his word should not return unto him void, but should accomplish that whereunto he has sent it. Comparing results with the limited funds entrusted, we feel that nothing short of the approbation of our God could thus establish the work of our hands.

And if this brotherhood should entrust to its Board means commensurate with zeal and the work accomplished, or if they should endow their missionary agents as liberally as do other bodies theirs, who could estimate results, or who measure the tremendous moral force of our accomplishment?

Provoke one another unto love and good works. Last year the Congregational brethren entrusted their Board of Home Missions with $602,462.24; the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions had $803,662.96;

the Methodist Episcopal Board had offerings amounting to $570,801.58; the Baptist Board appropriated $403,801.65; the Protestant Episcopal Board gave $584,077.38 for Home Missions. With far less money than either of these Boards, we are enabled to report greater results than any one of them. If our brotherhood would average two cents a week for Home Missions, we could organize 300 new churches every year; if we would indulge in what Paul called "hilarious" giving, the kind God loves, or to the extent of five cents a week per member, for Home Missions, we could enter into every open door in this land, within ten years. The sign of the Christian is sacrifice.

ENLARGEMENT.

The work of Home Missions has grown until your Board has found it necessary, in obedience to the suggestion of the Minneapolis Convention, to increase our secretarial force; and to this end, George B. Ranshaw, of San Antonio, Tex., was called to become Assistant Secretary. We believe our choice to have been wisely made, and that his influence and labors will result in the enlargement of the work. Our plans contemplate more than ever the most aggressive and unremitting work that may serve to bring the cause of Home Missions to the front, where, in the providence and purposes of God and the desires of his people, it properly belongs.

The increase in the spendable income was at once followed by an increase in the mission work done. In addition to the employment of the Assistant Secretary, we have undertaken new work, during the year, as follows:

GENERAL EVANGELIST IN THE EAST.—W. J. Wright was called to be General Evangelist in the East; his district is from the Potomac to the Hudson Rivers, where there are 16,500,000 people, and only about 6,000 Disciples. Bro. Wright has done faithful work. His report appears elsewhere.

ENLARGEMENT IN PORTO RICO.—We have greatly enlarged the work in Porto Rico by the employment of native evangelists—Manuel LeBron, Adolpho Captillio and Ramon Sosa. The reports have the ring of victory. The coming of the Protestant missionary has aroused the Roman Church to renewed efforts, but our missionaries are winning souls.

SAN FRANCISCO.—We have undertaken, in connection with the Board of City Missions, the work of city evangelization in San Francisco, with George Greenwell as missionary.

ENLARGEMENT IN OKLAHOMA, INDIAN TERRITORY AND SOUTH DAKOTA.—Our enlargement has extended to our work in Oklahoma, assisting John A. Stevens and Arthur T. Edwards, and in Indian Territory, where the Ardmore Church unites with the Home Board in maintaining G. T. Black as missionary in the Chickasha Nation.

We have also greatly enlarged our work in South Dakota, this having been made possible by a special gift for South Dakota from a dear friend of Home Missions.

INCREASE IN TEXAS.—We have increased our work in Texas, assisting in that State, John L. Andrews at Mineral Wells, Volney Johnson at El Paso, Geo. Munro at Galveston, John C. Dickson at Tyler.

Our work among the Mexicans at San Antonio has been greatly enlarged; your Board has used some of its annuity money in purchasing property, which will be a church, a school and a parsonage for our faithful missionary, Ygnacio Quintero.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.—This enlargement takes in Minneapolis, Minn., where a new church is just coming into being under the fostering care of this Board and the First Church; Portland, Ore., and many mission fields in various parts of the land. Of the forty-five appeals presented at our Minneapolis Convention, we were able to answer twenty-two; the other twenty-three we were compelled to refuse.

WINNIPEG.—We have entered Winnipeg and are trying to lay the foundations of the church in that growing city. There are some obstacles here to overcome, but a large-hearted, willing people, who appreciate the importance of an arousing campaign in the Canadian Northwest.

The joy of this enlargement is subdued by the pain of the memory of the many, many sheaves that we are compelled to leave to rust upon the wide-stretching fields. If our brethren would entrust us with $200,000, we could quadruple the work we are now doing; we could organize 200 new churches a year and save 10,000 souls for Christ. "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

MISSIONARY EDUCATION.

A review of the year's work in our literature department proves that there is an increasing demand for information regarding the work of Home Missions. This work is coming to its rightful and normal place in the affections of our people, and the results have richly repaid all the care and thought that have been given the requests that have come to us. Information is the mother of interest, interest is the mother of effort, and effort means help to this cause.

We have continued the publication of the AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY. By the additional help of the Assistant Secretary, we have been enabled to improve the magazine. We ask our brethren to rally to the support of this really meritorious magazine. Readers of the AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY can not fail to notice its greatly increased attractiveness and enhanced interest. It is a monthly magazine, and is sent at the nominal price of twenty-five cents a year. One issue contains the Year Book, with the list of all our preachers and statistics of our people; another the Minutes of the National Convention, with the report of the Board; another, the Boys' and Girls' Rally Day exercise. Each of these is worth more than the subscription price; the remaining numbers are full of the very cream of missionary literature. We urge large lists of names from our various churches. We solicit the attention of our ministers to this matter. In other religious bodies their missionary magazines are self-sustaining. Ours must be also.

The Home Mission Monthly, published by the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, was so liberally supported last year that it was able to contribute $5,000 from its accumulated profits to the home missionary treasury. With our enterprise and prestige and increasing strength, we should emulate this worthy example till even better things can be said of our appreciation of missionary literature.

Our Home Field is our quarterly paper, packed full of facts and figures, reports and pictures, and affords the opportunity for the presentation to the churches of the less formal incidents and matters of interest; the current events as they develop in missionary work, and correspondence. The subscription is ten cents a year. We urge a large increase to the list of subscribers to this publication. This paper contains much matter of interest to Sunday-schools. We would be glad to send it regularly in bundles of twenty-five or more at five cents a copy for the year, to any address. It will be found an excellent assistant in Sunday-school work.

FINANCES.

To insure the utmost care and administrative wisdom in the discharge of the sacred trust committed to them, your Board has chosen as a Finance Committee S. M. Cooper, Chairman of the Board; Clarence J. Neare, Treasurer of the Society, and H. T. Loomis, Attorney of the Board—gentlemen whose large experience in the financial and professional world commends them to unbounded confidence, and who give our finances their careful attention. They invest the Permanent Fund, and in every way safeguard the trust committed to us, acting under the advice and consent of the Acting Board.

PERMANENT NAMED MEMORIAL FUNDS.

The Acting Board of Managers of the American Christian Missionary Society has established the "Permanent Named Memorial Fund." If any one will entrust us with $5,000, we agree to carefully invest these funds, using only the interest, and in the name of that fund agree to keep a missionary at work in the home field, preaching the gospel through all the years. We have received ten named funds of $5,000 each; viz.: The F. M. Drake Fund, "A Friend to Home Missions" Fund, Margaret Oliver Fund, Lathrop Cooley Fund, Dr. Gerould Fund, The Geo. Bates Fund, and another which is now on the Annuity Plan, but becomes a Memorial Fund on the death of the annuitant. We have the John Reed Memorial Fund, which was on the Annuity Plan, and has now become a Permanent Memorial Fund.

NEW MEMORIAL FUNDS.

During the year we have received two funds of $5,000 each, which will become Named Memorial Funds; viz.: The Mrs. Nellie Eckert Fund and the Mrs. Frances T. Mee Fund. Mrs. Eckert is a faithful disciple of the Lord in the church at Topeka, Kan. Mrs. Mee and her husband are faithful disciples living at Charleston, Tenn. Their hearts' desire is to maintain the preaching of the Word in the future years.

These funds are received as Annuity Funds, and will become Permanent Memorial Funds on the death of the annuitants, and the Society agrees to use only the income of each fund, and agrees to maintain a missionary preaching the gospel throughout the years in the name of that fund. We earnestly commend the Permanent Memorial Fund to our brethren. It is a monument more honorable and more enduring than brass or marble.

THE WORK BEING DONE BY MEMORIAL FUNDS.

The Gen. F. M. Drake Memorial Fund has continued to be used in supporting Milton H. H. Lee in Baltimore at Fulton Avenue. Bro. Lee writes that the church has been greatly strengthened from a meeting held by Oliver Knipp, of Plymouth, Pa., in which there were sixty confessions, the membership now being 111. They are planning to reduce their appropriation $100 this year. The Sunday-school numbers 235, and the Senior and Junior Endeavor Societies are the strongest in that section of the city. "I still believe," writes Bro. Lee, "from actual results and outlook that your Board fosters no better work or none surer of early results than Fulton Avenue."

The "A Friend to Home Missions Fund" has been used in the West End Church, Atlanta, Ga. J. J. White is the missionary. He reports the church in splendid condition after a year's preparatory work, ready for every good work. Twelve have been added since February. The plans for the future look toward great accomplishment.

The Margaret Oliver Fund was used in Greater Pittsburg. H. F. Lutz is the missionary. His work has been very successful, and his report appears elsewhere.

The Dr. Gerould Memorial Fund is used for the support of the work in South Carolina. It was used to support Oscar Riley in Charleston and in supporting M. B. Ingle in State Mission work. The work in Charleston is confessedly hard, Bro. Riley reported. We are negotiating with a good man to go to Charleston. M. B. Ingle's work in the State was very successful; during the year he went to Columbia, inaugurated a work, and by faithful continuance planted a church and has located Bro. O. D. Maple as its minister. Thus in the first year of its administration, the Dr. Gerould Fund has organized a church of 21 members and been the means of baptizing 72 souls into Christ.

The John Reed Memorial Fund is given especially for mission work in New England. Your Board is planning to unite with the C. W. B. M. Board and the New England Board in supporting an evangelist in that field; the income of that fund will be used for that purpose. During the year we have used it in our appropriations to New England work, the report of which is presented.

The George Bates Memorial Fund has been used to support J. K. Hester as missionary in Nebraska; his work has been uniformly successful. His report is as follows: He has held three meetings in which 108 were added to the church. A meeting was held at Kimball, Minn., and a church organized. He is at present actively engaged in evangelistic labor, with splendid success. He has raised sufficient financial support to justify him in reducing this Board's appropriation to his assistance. We need more such laborers.

The Lathrop Cooley Memorial Fund has been appropriated to the work of city evangelization in San Francisco. It is Bro. Cooley's desire to have a line of missions around the world, supported by his gifts, so that the sun will never set upon the work that he is helping to do. He gave $5,000 to the Ohio State Board; he has given to our Foreign Society largely, and he desires that his gift of a permanent fund to the American Christian Missionary Society shall be used in California, half-way between his Ohio and his Hawaiian Mission. George Greenwell is the missionary supported by this fund; his work is highly commended by the brethren there.

Thus we see the magnificent practical workings of the plan of Permanent Memorial Funds. We should have not less than one hundred such funds. Nowhere can $5,000 be invested so as to produce results comparable to those indicated in the above statements. We ask our Master's friends, preachers and others, to call the attention more largely to this divine enterprise. It is a significant fact that the increase in the receipts of the greater religious bodies has come from legacies and bequests this year. We have not yet schooled our people in the beneficence that has marked the progress of other peoples less favored of the Lord than we. Stress must be laid upon the stewardship of this life in teaching the rich and the poor alike, that the Lord's commandments may be carried out.

ANNUITY FUNDS.

("Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven.")

The Annuity Plan is growing in favor and practice. The income from annuities was $23,720, a gain of $10,020 over the year before. This plan should be thoroughly understood by the preachers, and at least once a year should be brought to the attention of every congregation. Many friends desire to help the work of Home Missions who need the income from their money during their lifetime. The Annuity Plan permits their giving that money to the Society and receiving six per cent. interest (five per cent. if under fifty years of age), payable semi-annually. The Society issues the following Annuity Bond:

No..... $.....

AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, CINCINNATI, O.

ANNUITY BOND.

WHEREAS, ... of .....has donated to and paid into the treasury of the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY the sum of ..... dollars:

NOW, THEREFORE, the said AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in consideration thereof, hereby agrees to pay to said ..... during natural life..... an annuity of ..... dollars in semi-annual payments of ..... dollars each, said payments to cease on the death of said ..... and the said sum donated by..... as aforesaid, is to be considered as an executed gift to the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY and belonging to said Society from this date, without any account of liability therefor.

AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Cincinnati, Ohio .....

Attest: ..... Secretary.

By ..... President.

This plan has these advantages:

1. It yields a larger net income than any other form of investment.

2. You are free from anxiety about taxation; money so placed is free from taxation.

3. Its value is fixed through all the years of your life and can not decline.

4. You are free from anxiety in regard to your property; the investment is absolutely safe, no expenses for repairs or danger of bad investments. An Annuity Bond is issued by us to you, securing the prompt payment of semi-annual interest.

5. Your income from your Annuity Bond will not decrease.

6. You are free from anxiety about collecting your interest; it is sent you promptly without solicitation from you.

7. Your income from your Annuity will continue throughout your lifetime; no changes of fortune, no feebleness of age, no attacks of sickness, no panic in the business world, will stop or reduce your income from this source.

8. It is free from risks that accompany other forms of investments. As long as the church does missionary work, the American Christian Missionary Society will continue to receive money on the Annuity Plan, and will meet all its obligations.

9. You are free from anxiety about the final disposition of your property. The Annuity Plan enables you, while in the full possession of your powers of mind, to decide upon the final disposition of the property of which you are steward. The money given to the Society will be used strictly in accordance with your wishes. The Society will either spend the principal when it comes into full possession of it, or, if so requested by the donors, will hold the principal as a permanent fund and spend only the income. If undesignated, the money, when released by the death of the donor, will be used for the general purposes of the Society, in accordance with the best judgment of the Acting Board.

10. You are free from anxiety about making a will; you have disposed of your own property and executed your own will.

11. Donors know that the money thus given to the Society will be used for the purposes for which it was intended, which is not always the case with money left to the Society by will, because wills are frequently overthrown by the courts, and even when established, it is not infrequently the case that a considerable portion of the legacy is wasted in legal contests.

12. Donors, having decided upon the use which they will make of the Lord's money, by the Annuity Plan are removed from the temptation to spend it for their own comfort or luxury, or to distribute it under momentary impulse among less worthy objects.

13. Donors are relieved of the care and anxiety necessarily involved in caring for their own estate. Money, to be profitable, must not lie idle; it is not always easy to find secure investments; losses by unfortunate ventures are almost inevitable; money often lies idle for a time for the want of suitable investment; it is sometimes well-nigh impossible to obtain investments that shall be safe, and at the same time remunerative; the burden of the care of property increases with age and infirmity; widows, unaccustomed to the care of property, find it especially burdensome.

14. You have the joy of advancing the kingdom of our Lord in your own land and in your own lifetime.

15. You have the joy of helping forward the great plea of the Disciples of Christ in this our great day of opportunity, and helping the evangelization of America, the ripest harvest-field in the world.

Upon this subject we call attention to the following

SAMPLE LETTER.

BENJAMIN L. SMITH, Cor. Sec., Y. M. C. A. Building, Cincinnati, O.:

I enclose you draft for $10,000 (ten thousand dollars) on the Annuity Plan. Please do not let my name be known. I am getting in earnest about saving our own people. I believe more than ever in Home Missions."

And then to this splendid expression from one of our great papers:

"The wisdom of the Board in pushing the Annuity Plan is being demonstrated day by day. It is such a straightforward, business-like arrangement, which makes it so easily possible for persons of only moderate resources to do great good without unduly impoverishing themselves, that it is bound to commend itself more and more. The friend who has thus anonymously given $10,000 for missionary work is evidently "getting in earnest" on the subject, for he gives the whole sum for actual missionary work and does not expect to receive the benefit of any advertising from it. May his tribe increase.—Christian-Evangelist.

During the year we have received Annuity Funds amounting to $23,720.00.

BEQUESTS.

The wide discussion of Christian stewardship and systematic beneficence which has been a characteristic feature of religious life during the last five years, and the new interest which has come to our Home Mission work, have been productive of wholesome results and have aided in putting the cause of Home Missions upon a better plane in the plans of our brethren, and we believe an increasing number of bequests will be made to the Society. "Let us consider one another, to provoke unto love and good works."

In the year 1901-1902 the Baptist Home Missionary Society received bequests aggregating $78,348.62; the Congregational Board of Home Missions received from legacies, $169,927.08; the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions received bequests amounting to $133,557.96. We believe with our increase in missionary education and the growth of confidence, the American Christian Missionary Society will be remembered with equal liberality by our own brethren; surely our gospel should be as dear to our hearts as their gospel is to these brethren of the denominations.

May God help many of his people to remember the great work of Home Missions in their wills. The persons desiring to bequeath property to the Home Missionary Society, should use the following

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I hereby give and bequeath to the American Christian Missionary Society, whose headquarters are at Cincinnati, Ohio, the sum of..... dollars, to be used for preaching the gospel in America.

(If the bequest is real estate, it should be particularly described and the laws of the State in which you live particularly complied with).

During the year we have received bequests as follows:

John Hampshire, Logansport, Ind. (balance)	$ 150.00
J. H. Bauserman, Leavenworth, Kan.	1,100.00
Mrs. Roxana E. Rist, Dayton, Wash.	300.00
Phebe C. Dunn, Marion, Ia.	899.10

SPECIAL FUNDS.

We have received during the year $956.50 special fund for Jacksonville, Fla. This sum should have been many fold larger. Our Jacksonville brethren are very grateful for the help received, but when we remember that they are a poor people, that they had lost their household goods in the fire, and yet, out of their deep poverty, they have tried to build this house to the Lord, our brethren should have come more liberally to their help. It is not yet too late to do a Christian service by sending help to Jacksonville.

PERSONAL OFFERINGS.

We hope to receive an increase in personal offerings during the coming year. Many friends of this work live away from any local congregation; their offerings should not fail to be sent. Many live in congregations where the offering for Home Missions is neglected or passed by, they should send their personal offerings. Very many want to be personally represented in this work; we urge upon all such that the personal offerings be sent directly to us, as early in the year as practicable.

OFFERINGS OF THE CHURCHES.

We have made a gain of forty in the number of churches contributing, with a gain of $4,879.39 in the amount contributed by the churches. This is the largest amount ever received in a single year from the churches, and is a sign of growth, which we regard as a matter of sincere congratulation.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' RALLY DAY.

Scme one has said: "The Bible-school, rightly understood, is a soul-winning, soul-building, soul-impelling agency." This power we must enlist for Home Missions. Our schools as such have done little for Home Missions; the receipts the first year, 1898, were $1,352.66; last year our schools gave $4,531.46 for Home Missions. We have set our mark for $25,000 from this source within the next two years, for the chief cause of causes—the advancement of the kingdom of our Lord in America. Through BOYS' AND GIRLS' RALLY DAY we are enlisting the Sunday-school forces in Home Missionary enterprise, as Children's Day has aligned them for world-wide missions. Our progress has been slow indeed, but results are stable. This year we have enlarged our plans and preparations and we have assurances of greatly increased revenue from this source. The exercises sent out during September have met with great favor and have been enthusiastically received. The orders for supplies for the celebration of the annual Fall Festival have come from every quarter. The fact that one-half of the receipts from this source is returned immediately to the States contributing, ought to inspire the churches everywhere to engage in this doubly effective Home Missionary enterprise.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL ROLL OF HONOR.

The following Sunday-schools are placed on Roll of Honor because they have paid $25 or more to Home Missions during last missionary year:

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Our Christian Endeavor Societies, under the leadership of John E. Pounds, are coming into increasing helpfulness in this work.

Porto Rico has been assigned to them as a special field; the work has been presented to them in various ways and their response is a hopeful indication, yet we count not ourselves as having yet apprehended (or laid hold of) our Christian Endeavor Societies, but this one thing we hope to do, forgetting the failures that are behind, we reach forth to that great help which our Endeavor Societies can give, in the paramount issue of America's redemption.

Last year the Endeavor Societies of the Presbyterian Church supported fourteen missionaries and ten mission teachers and made larger contributions to their other work. The Endeavorers of that body entrusted their Board of Home Missions with $14,635.60. We hope our societies will rally to the work in Porto Rico until the cry of need from that island will be hushed in the fulness of the supply of the bread of life.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR ROLL OF HONOR.

The following Christian Endeavorers are placed on Roll of Honor because they have paid $10 or more to support their special work in Porto Rico.

CO-OPERATION WITH STATE BOARDS.

The co-operation between the National and State Boards of Missions, as suggested by the Springfield (Ill.) Convention, grows more cordial and intimate each year. This co-operation is uniformly endorsed by the Secretaries of our various State Boards. The appropriation made from the National Board to thirty-two of our State Boards of Missions has brought all our work into closer unity and sympathy; it has quickened the work of every one of these State Boards.

Boys' and Girls' Rally Day for America has proven a strong cord of mutual interest, and enlists energies heretofore latent and undeveloped in State and National missionary industry.

OUR MISSIONARIES.

This is a list of the men on the skirmish line; almost to a man they have been severely tested and have shown themselves heroes in their work, by their spirit of self-sacrifice, their devoted labor, their cheerfulness and fidelity under severe testing and their indomitable energy and fortitude in spite of meager compensation and often discouragement.

If we could quadruple the equipment of men like these we would enter into the campaign for the evangelization of America without apprehension. Like Beecher's cohort panoplied in the armor of the 13th chapter of I. Corinthians, they would prove, before the world, the flesh, and the devil, invincible.

OUR APPROPRIATIONS.

We began the year with a small indebtedness of $2,087.89; we made increased appropriations, as shown by the enlargement indicated before. We closed the year with a debt of $607.28, which indicates that the Board estimated within $607.28 of the income of the Society during the year. We have gone to the very limit of prudence in making these appropriations.

We are urged to make larger appropriations, trusting the brotherhood would rally and lift the work out of debt. We have preferred to manage this work prudently and conservatively, and trust the churches to see that your Board was faithful in the management of the little things, and that gradually the churches would entrust the Acting Board with the management of larger things.

SELF-SUPPORT.

It is the settled policy of the Society to encourage mission churches to assume self-support as early as practicable. The period through which help may be wisely extended depends upon a great variety of circumstances, but we realize that it is as easy to injure a church by too much help as it is to injure a man by the same means. All our contracts are on the descending scale, and provide that unless there is some unusual loss by removal, death or division, there must be some reduction in the amount of the appropriation each year until the mission reaches self-support.

THE FIELD AND THE WORKERS.

ARIZONA.

The First Church of Phœnix has made a splendid record under the leadership of Imri Zumwalt. Under the light of such achievements, our hearts grow sick at the contemplation of our little doing in the midst of so vast a reach of destitution and wondrously rich an opportunity. During the ten months of Bro. Zumwalt's incumbency there has been a total of 28 accessions, the present membership being now 200. In the same period $827.43 has been raised by the members for current expenses, and $529.42 has been added to the building fund. Every phase of missionary work has been helped, $20 being sent to the Home Board, $21.97 to the Foreign, $12.05 to Church Extension, $24.22 to California Orphans' Home. The congregation owes now $2,000 to the Church Extension Fund. This has been a hard year, full of struggle, denial and deprivation for this little band, but, remembering that it is the only church owned by the disciples between El Paso, Tex., and Redlands, Cal., and the only church supporting a pastor in all this vast territory, they have continued steadfast in the faith. Denominationalism is occupying this great territory rapidly. Thousands of dollars are being spent in this region by the various denominations annually, while we are only able to expend $150. If our appeals were responded to in the measure of our opportunity, we could supply all this immense field with the true gospel.

In Arizona we have 2 congregations and 350 members; in New Mexico we have 6 congregations and 360 members. The Baptists have 4 self-supporting churches in New Mexico, and 28 missionaries. In these two Territories there are over 234,000 square miles embraced. The United States census gives Arizona the largest percentage of increase in population of any section or State in the Union. The population is still increasing. This is seedtime. This is the formative period of the civic, the moral and the religious life of this great belt of new territory. We ought to enter it now.

But one inhabitant in 37 in Arizona and New Mexico is a member of an evangelical church. Vice, lawlessness, disregard of human rights and life, characterize the life of most frontier towns, and make missionary work hard and disheartening, often perilous. But the Lord's work goes on, and the "patient continuance in well-doing" will bring the fruitage of redeemed life to this now barren field, in God's own time.

ARKANSAS.

E. C. Browning reports a splendid year's work, six churches having been organized, and an increase in the ingathering of 180 over the work of the previous year. This year, in co-operation, the State Board and the American Christian Missionary Society have assisted 14 missionary points, as against 4 the previous year. The influx of population into this rapidly developing State, and the investment of capital for the development of its incalculable mineral wealth, make this great State an exceedingly important and a very inviting field of missionary labor. The Missionary Bulletin is the official publication of the State, and is published by J. N. Jessup and E. C. Browning. Members in the State 37,000; number of churches, 500; number of preachers, 235.

CALIFORNIA.

This immense State is divided into two missionary districts. J. P. Ralstin, of Orange, Cal., Corresponding Secretary of the South Division, elected by the convention held at Santa Monica. Grant K. Lewis, of Long Beach, was at this meeting chosen President; A. C. Smither, of Los Angeles, Vice-President; A. K. Crawford, of Los Angeles, Treasurer, and J. W. Utter, F. M. Dowling, W. G. Conley, C. C. Chapman and A. H. Thomas, members of the Board. The total number of additions through missionary effort was 274. Eleven missionaries are employed. Members in the State, 6,170; number of churches, 39; number of preachers, 53.

Hanford, under the leadership of T. H. Lawson, has moved forward with great strides. A debt of $2,500 has been reduced to less than $900, with good prospect of an early liquidation of the remainder. Missions have been emphasized with encouraging results. Their offering for State work was $40; for Church Extension, $25; for Foreign Missions, $40; for Home Missions, $40; for Ministerial Relief, $20; for support of an orphan, $15; Children's Day, $10; C. W. B. M., $20. This is a return of more than half of what was received. In his report, Bro. Lawson says: "I am more in sympathy with Home Missions than ever before. There are so many places where a little assistance for a year or two is needed to save. I would like to see a great revival of enthusiasm for Home Missions."

COLORADO.

The mission work in Colorado is under the support of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions. It has been a year of solid attainment in this great State. The whole of the central West affords a wonderfully rich and responsive soil to gospel preaching. We have no late statistics, as our report closes, but last year there were reported 46 congregations and 46 preachers.

IDAHO.

Our work in Idaho progresses slowly from many considerations. We lack means and men. Mormonism is an open affront and a stolid obstacle to almost every religious appeal and project. Yet, wherever we have attained a foothold, we have made progress. L. F. Stephens and wife have spent eleven months in this field, and report 123 baptisms—55 by letter and 55 by other accessions. Churches organized, 3.

S. G. Clay reports during his seven months' work in Boise, that he has had 3 baptisms and 20 added by letter. The city is growing rapidly, and immigration is unprecedented. The church needs the services of an able evangelist to thoroughly substantiate the work. The American Christian Missionary Society was compelled sadly to decline this request, owing to the condition of its treasury.

Lewiston is supported by the Home Board to the extent of $200. The church is five years old, and has a membership of 125, which takes the lead in all religious work in the community. They have determined to be out of debt and self-supporting within two years. J. A. Pine, the minister here, reports 26 baptisms and 19 from other sources, with splendid prospects ahead.

J. W. Wittkamper has had a splendid year at Moscow. The location of the State University here gives our church a splendid advantage, and under the skillful leadership of Bro. Wittkamper excellent progress has been made, not only in the city, but in the surrounding counties. Forty-six additions are reported.

ILLINOIS.

This State has a population of 4,821,550. Our membership in the State is estimated at 126,981. Jay E. Lynn, of Springfield, is President of the State Board, and J. Fred Jones, of Bloomington, is Corresponding Secretary. Fifteen churches were organized by missionary effort last year, 63 places assisted, 58 missionaries employed, and 1,710 additions reported. Number of churches, 791; number of resident ministers, 459; annual convention in September. Our National Board expends no money in Illinois, except in Chicago Missions.

CHICAGO.—REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT.

Ashland.—Did pastoral work from October 24 to November 3. Began meeting then; raised $400 in pledges for pastor. The church raised $615 in pledges on house. I organized a C. W. B. M. Auxiliary at Ashland of 15 members, and added 17 to congregation. Morning of November 3 I aided in Monroe Street dedication. They raised $7,000 in pledges. Not all my time in any report is given to the place credited. This trip at Ashland I worked at their building problem. During April I held a brief meeting (one week) at Waupun, Wis.; also preached at Springfield, Ill., on Sunday. Raised $86 at the First Church for City Missions.

Harvey.—Held meeting five weeks; adjusted difficulties; had 21 additions; reorganized church. Located Robt. L. Wilson and raised $436 in pledges on salary. Organized C. W. B. M. Auxiliary of 16 members. Took pastoral care for January, 1902.

North Side Church.—Located O. P. Spiegel and raised $1,500 in pledges for current expenses.

Douglas Park.—Aided in completing house from February 2 to 23. Assumed $90 personally on plastering; raised money (in all, $508), including the Syndicatt money, part of which was paid before. This does not include money raised by the congregation. I also secured the remittance of $428.62 back interest from the Church Extension Board. Held meeting from February 23 to April 1. Set movement on foot that resulted in raising $300 in pledges on pastor's salary and expenses. Dedicated house, February 2, and plastered and held meeting after; 22 added.

West Pullman.—I intended to hold a meeting at West Pullman from April 15 to June 1. I intrusted preparation for same to others, while crowded at Douglas Park; came to it, and they were not ready.

Evanston.—Spent part of May advertising, visiting, and getting ready for meeting. Began June 1; hindered by smallpox, rain and Commencements; had good meeting, however. Organized a new mission of 50 members at Wilmette. Closed meeting at Evanston first week in July, with 12 additions. They have raised about $1,000 in cash and pledges on building fund this year. Paid nearly $100 in cash during this meeting; besides rent of Y. M. C. A. Auditorium, advertising, etc.

Vacation.—Began July 21, and continued three weeks. I delivered two addresses at Maxinkuckee; preached at our missions every Sunday except August 10, at Ionia, Mich.

Humboldt Park.—Spent time canvassing west of location with a view of opening another work and hoping to put Humboldt Park to it, but failed. Preached for them and turned to Maplewood, preparatory to organizing a new church.

Maplewood.—We intended to erect a tabernacle and hold a meeting, but uncertainty of future support took the courage out of the workers and they refused to co-operate. We meet in a good hall on Sundays, and such week nights as we can get it. The results are, the committing of more than thirty people to the work and the assurance of the continued growth of the work.

On September 14 I aided in the dedication at Ashland Church. C. R. Scoville spoke, and they raised $845. Also aided in dedicating Irving Park Church, September 21, and they raised $567 cash. I also attended the Illinois State Convention and the Wisconsin State Convention, where I delivered one address and two Bible Study lectures. I closed my work with the year, Sept. 30, 1902, to accept the pastorate of the Ionia (Mich.) Church. We have been unable to make any satisfactory arrangement regarding the Humboldt Park property.

During the year I have made 461 house-to-house calls, which means many personal sermons and marked Bibles. I have attended ninety-six meetings, besides preaching. I have had numerous conferences with mission pastors and workers, and carried on a large correspondence. I aided in raising cash for expenses of meetings and mission buildings, to the amount of $1,618.60; in pledges on pastors' salaries, $2,600, in round numbers. Besides, I aided in four dedications when they raised in pledges and cash about $8,800.

REPORT OF THE CHICAGO CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

CHURCHES AIDED FINANCIALLY.

Ashland Church of Christ.—J. P. Findley, pastor, beginning Aug. 1, 1902, aided with supplement at the rate of $200 per year, and a call on Building Syndicate. A. J. Hargett was pastor from January 1 to April 15, and did good service. The city missionary assumed pastoral care during the interim. Report 4 baptisms, 5 by letter, and 2 others added, besides 17 in meeting.

Austin Christian Church.—George A. Campbell, pastor. The C. C. M. S. has an obligation to them of $200 direct as final payment on their lot, and a promised assessment on the Building Syndicate when ready to build.

Douglas Park Church of Christ.—Claire L. Waite, pastor. Received the assessment of Building Syndicate, amounting to $300, and a loan of $100 from Permanent Loan Fund; also the major part of evangelist's services for two months. The Executive Board of Chicago Christian Missionary Society have agreed to supplement the pastor's salary at the rate of $500 per year, from the time of his residence, October 1, until Jan. 1, 1903, and recommend its continuance. They report 21 baptisms, 4 additions by letter, and 1 other during the year.

Evanston Christian Church.—W. D. Ward, pastor. Aided with a five weeks' meeting by the city evangelist. They report 30 additions during the year—14 by baptism, 11 by letter, and 5 others.

Garfield Boulevard Church of Christ.—Lloyd E. Newcomer, pastor. This work is supplemented to the amount of $120 per year. They report six baptisms and one additional by letter, and Bible-school and audiences much increased during the year.

Harvey Church of Christ.—Robert L. Wilson, pastor. Aided by over two months' service of the city missionary, one in a meeting, and one in pastoral care. They receive supplement on pastor's salary at the rate of $200 per year. They report 2 baptisms, 2 by letter, and 1 other addition, besides the 21 added during meeting. The work is in good condition.

Humboldt Park.—E. E. Cowperthwaite contributed his services as pastor for about eight months, through the Society. A part of this time he preached evenings at Maplewood. Both missions are under lasting obligations to him. The Mission Board contributed $40 on current expenses, and the services of the Superintendent of Missions for pastoral care and an effort to complete their building or exchange their property, which they were unable to do.

Irving Park Church of Christ.—Marion Stevenson, pastor. Supplemented by $300 for one year. They completed building and report five baptisms, and are now in meeting.

Northwest Mission.—Paid on rent of building and advertising, $48.75. This is our foreign mission, with an attendance of 100 children. It is manned by fourteen officers and teachers from Jackson Boulevard Church.

Wilmette Mission.—The Executive Board voted an appropriation of $10 as a guarantee of any deficit for three months' rent in opening this promising work. They also received six months' supplies. The mission is one of the results of the Evanston meeting, and is manned by their workers.

Maplewood Mission.—The Mission Board has contributed the service of A. Larrabee to advertising and a meeting by the city evangelist. Results: A Bible-school of over 100; 3 baptisms; 4 confessions, yet to be baptized, and the gathering of about 30 members to stand for the work. We have not organized, because it was thought best for the future of the work to continue for the time being as a mission.

Garfield Park Mission Church.—S. G. Neff contributed his services as pastor, through the Chicago Christian Missionary Society, for seven months of the year, and did them noble service. They report four additions by letter and five others; also an Endeavor Society. They now need special attention and aid.

MISSION CHURCH HOUSES.

During the year the following mission churches have completed their buildings in the order named:

1. West Pullman.—Basement completed and the house remodeled at a cost of $1,300, which leaves their indebtedness about that amount. Property valued at $4,000.

2. Douglas Park.—Dedicated Feb. 2, 1902. Cost of house, allowing for services donated, about $1,500, leaving them an indebtedness of about $2,800.

3. Ashland.—Dedicated Sept. 14, 1902. Cost of house, including service donated, about $2,700; value of property, $3,500; debt about $1,200.

4. Irving Park.—Dedicated Sept. 21, 1902. Auditorium completed at a cost of about $4,000, including service. Value of property is about $7,000, with an indebtedness of $3,500 in Church Extension Society.

BUILDING FUNDS.

Evanston.—Has a building fund of nearly $1,200 in bank, and $500 in cash pledges, about $1,000 of which has been added this year.

Austin.—They have raised and paid on their property about $2,600. They expect to begin building at once.

Humboldt Park.—We have been disappointed in not being able to secure means to complete their building. They have their foundations on a lot bought for them by the Church Extension Board.

Harvey.—They repaired building, laid a new sidewalk around lot, and made final payment to Church Extension Board.

Garfield Boulevard.—Has a small fund started, and Maplewood has also begun to collect money for a building.

INDIANA.

With a population of 2,516,462, Indiana contains about 123,000 Disciples. We have in this great State 924 churches and 628 resident ministers. The State President is A. B. Philputt, of Indianapolis, and the Corresponding Secretary is T. J. Legg, of Logansport. During the year 10 missionaries have been employed for the whole or part of their time. Twenty-four places have been helped, 13 new churches organized, 755 persons baptized, 650 added otherwise. In this State the Sunday-schools are being brought into active co-operation with all missionary enterprises and are adjunct to the State Missionary Board. Much progress is being made by this combined efficiency. The district conventions are a source of great help in organization and co-operative missionary enterprise.

INDIAN TERRITORY.

Indian Territory contains a population of 392,060, among which we have scattered in the neighborhood of 6,000 members. S. B. Dawes, of Muskogee, is President of the Territorial Co-operation, and G. T. Black, of Ardmore, is Corresponding Secretary. Five hundred additions are reported from missionary effort during the year, and 12 churches were organized. Twelve places were assisted by missionary labor. Two missionaries were supported for part time. Number of churches, 50; number of preachers, 54.

KANSAS.

Our membership approximates 50,000 in the Sunflower State, in the midst of a population of 1,470,495. We have 396 churches and 260 preachers. W. S. Lowe, Corresponding Secretary. reports $3,836.19 raised for State work, and $197,500 for other purposes. One new church was organized during the year, and a total of 600 additions through missionary labor. Eleven missionaries are at work in this State. Western Kansas is rapidly filling up; the whole State is prosperous to an unprecedented degree. We need to keep our helping hand reached out in this direction, lest we lose what we have.

KENTUCKY.

Kentucky's population numbers 2,147,174, and our membership is 118,000. Chas. Louis Loos, of Lexington, is State President, and H. W. Elliott, of Sulphur, is Corresponding Secretary. In this State the Sunday-schools are being again enlisted in missionary enterprise, Robt. M. Hopkins, of Louisville, being the Sunday-school evangelist. During the year 2,191 additions have been reported as the direct result of missionary effort, 30 missionaries have been employed, 225 places assisted by missionary labor, and 14 churches organized. Number of churches, 800; number of resident ministers. 455; annual convention in September.

W. T. Donaldson, minister of the Central Christian Church of Newport, was sent by his congregation to hold a meeting at Olive Hill, Ky., during the summer. In the midst of a large mining and fire-brick country, Bro. Donaldson was able to do some splendid missionary work. The church at Olive Hill was greatly strengthened, and eighteen added to the faith, while the entire surrounding country was mellowed for future seed-sowing. We commend the example of this splendid evangelistic congregation and preacher, and pray that many others may do likewise during the coming year.

LOUISIANA.

Louisiana has a population of 1,381,625. We have but 1,458 members in all the State. Yet the State Board presses on, persevering against many discouragements. The year has been an encouraging one. D. C. Brown, of Jennings, is State President, and Claude L. Jones, of Shreveport, is Corresponding Secretary. They report 2 new churches organized, 153 additions through missionary labor, 2 places assisted, and 2 missionaries in the field. There are 26 congregations in this great State, and only 11 preachers; annual convention in June.

MARYLAND, DELAWARE AND DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

[Maryland, Delaware and District of Columbia are under one organization.]

In these three States we have a heroic band of 4,612 members in the midst of a population of 1,890,882. W. S. Hoye, of Beaver Creek, is President of the Board, and J. A. Hopkins, of Rockville, Md., is Corresponding Secretary. The total number of additions last year was 106. Eight missionaries are employed. Fifteen places were assisted. Convention held annually in October.

The Twenty-fifth Street congregation, under the ministry of Flournoy Payne, has healed old differences and gone forward in the work of soul-saving. They are rapidly paying off their debt and getting in condition to receive the influx of membership which must inevitably result from the removal of the great Johns Hopkins University to the neighborhood of the present church home.

East Orange, N. J., is one of our most successful missions, under the guidance of R. P. Shepherd. They are working rapidly towards self-support.

MICHIGAN.

The State of Michigan contains 2,420,982 inhabitants. We have 11,000 members in this State. H. H. Halley, of Kalamazoo, is State President, and D. Munro, of Wayland, is Corresponding Secretary. During the year 7 missionaries have been at work, assisting 11 places, with a result of 297 additions, 3 churches organized, and 7 church buildings erected. The State is better organized and the prospects are better than ever before. There are 111 churches in the State, and 82 preachers. The annual meeting is in June.

Grand Rapids and Waldron each sustain a minister without any assistance from outside, and this is the first year of their organization. Fully 1,000 have been added to the membership this year, an increase of 10 per cent.

There is no more fruitful field in America than Michigan. Eighteen months ago our Mission Board took up Durand, where 13 members had a $500 lot half paid for. They have received, through our Board, $314.80. They now have 64 members and a $4,000 property, with the entire debt provided for.

Grand Rapids—Fifth Avenue—organized during the year, has 80 members, and an $8,000 property, with the entire debt provided for. This church is self-supporting from the start. These results can be duplicated many times over. Help us enter the open doors.

Very little has been done thus far to establish our work in the cities of Michigan. There are 17 cities with a population of 2,000 or over, where we have 20 churches. There are 76 cities with a population of 2,000 or over, where we have no churches. Last year buildings were erected in four cities.

We are asked to enter Lansing, the State capital; South Haven, Evart, Alma, Lapeer, Battle Creek, Port Huron and other cities. What we need is money. Now is the time for Michigan.

MINNESOTA.

This State has been better organized and equipped than at any time in her history. With the support of the American Christian Missionary Society, the State has made good and solid progress. A stricter oversight has been kept of churches in need of preachers, and not a few adventurers have been barred out.

St. Paul reports through A. D. Harmon: "Five years ago we had a membership of 80, the church was discouraged and contemplated disbanding. It had a lot with $5,000 against it. Now the church has an energetic membership of over 200, lot paid for, and a new building projected. This is the fruit of Home Missions. Every city in the land needs your co-operation." Twenty-two baptisms are reported and 26 added otherwise.

MISSOURI.

Missouri keeps the even tenor of her way. Strongly entrenched, and with wise conservatism, she organizes, plans, and executes for permanent results. Drought has here and there discouraged local enterprise, but, on the whole, the record is magnificent. The total reaping in the missionary fields was 3,500—1,929 by baptism, and 1,572 from other sources. Thirty-six churches were organized by missionary forces, and 145 places helped besides. There was raised for State work $13,350, and for other work, $15,619. We commend to all the study of the annual report of T. A. Abbott, the State Corresponding Secretary, as given elsewhere in detail.

St. Louis.—We have united with the St. Louis Board of Missions in maintaining mission work at Carondelet; Gilbert E. Ireland, missionary at Ellendale; G. A. Hoffmann, missionary, with O. A. Bartholomew as general city evangelist. We regret that the exceedingly meager reports sent us by the City Board of Missions prevent a full statement of the work done in that great city.

NEBRASKA.

Nebraska has been blessed with abundant prosperity in things spiritual and temporal. In all parts of the State, cities and churches are growing rapidly. The American Christian Missionary Society fully appreciates the growing needs of the State, and is assisting every forward movement as liberally and as promptly as local conditions and the state of the treasury justify. The work of W. A. Baldwin, Corresponding Secretary, has been of inestimable value. He reports a State membership of 18,000 in a population of 1,068,539, with 185 congregations and 145 preachers at work. Yet, with this membership, $1,991.34 was raised for State work, and $8,413.13 for other work. One new congregation was organized, 154 baptized, and 255 added otherwise, while 23 places were assisted by missionary labor.

There are 27 cities in this State with a population of 2,000 or more. There are 38 towns of 1,000 to 2,000 population. There are 2,115 villages and country places having 100 people or less. Thus, out of 2,180 available points, we can boast of but 185 occupied. Nebraska is an agricultural State, and if we would prove a power here, we must occupy the waste places.

J. K. Hester has closed his third year as special evangelist for the American Christian Missionary Society. He reports 108 additions in these meetings. He held a meeting at Kimball, Minn., resulting in 25 accessions and the organization of a church. He has raised money in the field sufficient to very materially reduce the Board's appropriation to his support.

NEW ENGLAND.

There are 6,000,000 people in New England, in the midst of which we find but 2,783 Disciples. Twenty congregations rally around the standard of New Testament Christianity with commendable zeal and fortitude. J. H. Mohorter, 18 St. James Street, Boston, is President of the New England Board, and G. A. Reinl, of Springfield, Mass., is Corresponding Secretary. Five different points were assisted by the co-operation last year. Ninety-nine additions were reported. Five missionaries were employed during the year at various places. We are planning better things for this most responsive field, and hope by the close of another year to report the greatest progress in any quarter.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA.

The Board of Northern California has been reorganized under the presidency of A. R. Hathaway, Santa Clara, and J. P. Dargitz, Healdsburg, Corresponding Secretary. Last year they raised $1,350 for State work, and devoted all their time to strengthening the weak points. Thirty-three baptisms are reported, and 60 additions from other sources, the total number being 93. Five missionaries were employed during the year, assisting twenty-one places. The next convention meets at Santa Cruz, in July. We are assisting the Board of Northern California in their work.

The church at Alameda has passed through a very severe crisis during the year. Under the pastoral care of P. C. MacFarlane, it has come out of its difficulties, and gives promise of prosperity.

With the advice of the Board of Northern California, we are supporting Geo. Greenwell as City Evangelist of San Francisco, under the support of the Lathrop Cooley Fund. The report appears elsewhere.

OREGON.

Under the care of J. B. Lister, the State work of Oregon has gone forward with great success. We have assisted in the following places: Grants Pass, Tillamook, Coquille, Ashland, Roseburg, The Dalles, La Grande, Turner, Portland (Rodney Avenue).

J. F. Ghormley reports a membership of 500 in Portland, with a beautiful and convenient house costing $15,000. "Our membership is not rich in this world's goods, but, by the timely help of your Board and the heroic efforts of the noble people, the present results have been obtained." The Presbyterians have churches and missions in every part of the city, and expend not less than $25,000 annually in this city. They hope soon to be self-supporting.

The State numbers 7,767 Disciples, with 116 congregations; 65 preachers are living in the State. Albyn Esson is President of the State Board of Missions. The State Board raised $15,031 for missionary work. The two congregations were organized during the year, and a total number of 254 additions by missionaries.

DEPARTMENT OF THE EAST.

W. J. Wright reports:

At the end of ten months in your service I can report but little done. My labors have but touched the hem of the garment of the moral darkness in this field—from the Potomac to the Hudson. I know only enough about this field to be impressed and oppressed by its vastness. I give aid to the missions up to the limit of my strength; but what is this little among so many? and who is sufficient for the task?

My labor has carried me into many of the churches of the East, and into all our missions within my territory. Our brethren are but beginning to discover themselves and their field in the East. They begin to see their opportunities as the blind man saw men as trees walking, but the work is so great, and they so few and weak, as to make the task appear all but hopeless. However, the spirit of co-operation is growing, better missionary methods are being adopted and money more wisely expended than in the past, while a determination to bring Home Missions to the front is manifest in all our gatherings. As this determination is carried out, the outlook for our work improves.

I have spoken on Home Missions in about 75 churches in my territory, besides representing the Society at a goodly number of conventions, conferences and other gatherings; have untangled tangled ends and straightened the crooked in some of the missions. The mission at East Orange, N. J., has been greatly strengthened and its need of aid correspondingly decreased; the mission at Huntington Avenue, Baltimore, revived and helped through a crisis which threatened its very existence; the church at Reading was encouraged more than built up by my series of meetings there. A second church, and in a much more hopeful community than the first, can soon be built up in Reading at our mission Sunday-school, if we can get the Board of Church Extension to purchase a lot. It is an unusual opening. My presence in Reading made it possible to accept a great opportunity for village work at Adamstown, a place of 1,000 near Reading. For $1,000 we have been enabled to purchase a church which cost about $9,000. Repairs have cost about $300. We have an excellent preacher in charge of the work, which is being carried on without aid from any society. This is a brand-new organization. At Dunmore, Pa., 30 were added to the mission. At Kensington, Philadelphia, 25 were added, and such impetus given the work that there have been baptisms nearly every week in three months; the new point, South Philadelphia, was opened up and an excellent man, C. C. Garrigues, put in charge. I conducted the summer meetings at Bethany Beach, and held a tent meeting at the Kensington mission, Brooklyn, N. Y. To this mission new life, hopes and prospects were brought. Ere long we hope to have them in a good house on one of the best corners of the greatest churchless residence part of a city which I have ever seen.

My work has tended to unify our work in a couple of the cities where unity among our forces is badly needed. It has created a much deeper interest in Home Missions than ever before in many of the churches, and ere long will bear fruit in greatly enlarged offerings, and other income to the American Christian Missionary Society. I have located several good men in the East, and have been able to prevent some bad men from securing work among the churches along the Atlantic seaboard.

The work is very great, and its difficulties almost disheartening in view of the small amount of money placed at your disposal with which to carry it forward. Yet splendid results are being brought about in most places where you are supporting the work. The work is full of promise.

"The powers of darkness yield,
For the cross is in the field,
And the Light of life revealed."

Hitherto hath the Lord helped me; I still trust him for strength and daily grace to continue in the work if it be his desire—and yours.

WM. J. WRIGHT.

NOVA SCOTIA.

F. J. M. Appleman is marshaling the forces at Pictou, the most beautiful seaport of Nova Scotia. Scotch Presbyterians, Methodists and Episcopalians have long held sway here. A meeting was held during the year with encouraging results. It is a most hopeful field.

Halifax.—R. Everett Stevenson is missionary pastor at Halifax; he is doing excellent work. His report shows 107 sermons, 14 baptisms, and the audiences largely increased. The church in Halifax is constantly giving members to the churches in New England, by emigration.

ONTARIO.

R. W. Ballah leads the army of the Lord's workers in Ontario. The ultra conservatism in the Dominion makes the progress of our work, largely revolutionary in its character, exceedingly slow and difficult. Says the Corresponding Secretary: "In the Dominion we are waking up to the unlimited resources of our country. The great fields before us in Ontario and Quebec on the east, and our vast Northwest on the other side, with the fertile prairies stretching away to the Pacific region, discourage us. We are so few. In Ontario we have just passed a most successful year, and our work is plainly on the forward move."

Jos. Keevil reports for Rat Portage a good meeting held by Romig and Dawdy, and encouraging prospects. Bro. M. P. Hayden has been called to the work here, Bro. Keevil having resigned. This little company of believers, so far out on the frontier, will form eventually the bulwark to a great work in this growing region.

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

We have 53 churches in Eastern Pennsylvania, with 37 preachers. Our membership is about 5,348. C. A. Brady is Corresponding Secretary. Here, as elsewhere throughout the East, our plea attracts, and churches could be established with comparatively little effort and expense. But means are needed for the initiative. Ninety-seven have been baptized through missionary labor, and 53 added otherwise.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

Charlottetown is enabled by our Board to keep a minister for all his time. R. W. Stevenson reports encouraging growth. This is a college town, and our church is exerting a marked and widely spreading influence.

TEXAS.

In this State we are making giant strides in the face of subtle opposition and years of prejudice. B. B. Sanders, the faithful, tireless Corresponding Secretary, sends in a model report. Out of the 3,500,000 population, we have 85,000 members. Though the State Co-operation dates only from 1886, its organization and operation equals in efficiency and accomplishment that of any of our older States, and surpasses many. Last year $13,526.26 was raised for State Missions, and more than $6,000 for other work. Twenty-three churches were organized, and 225 places assisted by missionary labor by the 22 missionaries employed. The total additions numbered 2,557. We have over 700 congregations in the State, and 450 preachers.

The American Christian Missionary Society contributes annually $200 to the State Board, besides assisting Galveston, Mineral Wells, El Paso and Tyler, and sustaining the Mexican Mission. The Corresponding Secretary testifies to the great help of the American Christian Missionary Society in the work of evangelizing this immense State, so rich in resources and possibilities. Last year B. B. Sanders, while conducting the office business in the employment and direction of 22 field men and 225 mission points, preached 318 sermons, baptized 70, and received into the church 97 others, visited 80 points, and raised $5,628.30 in the field.

Possibilities in this great State are tremendous. With 265,780 square miles of territory, in which towns and cities are springing up as if by magic, with railroads tapping every point, capital entering at every door, and 80,000 people moving into the State every year, it is necessary that a wide-awake and aggressive policy should be pursued.

J. C. Dickson is leading the forces at Tyler out of discouragement and entanglement into substantial organization, with a bright future before it.

Volney Johnson has added 52 to the congregation at El Paso, kept them in the front rank as missionary givers, and helped to purchase a lot for $8,750. They expect to sell their old church property for $20,000 and build on a better scale, and expect soon to be on a self-supporting basis. In addition to his regular work, Bro. Johnson has held meetings at adjacent points, and baptized 41, and received 37 otherwise.

H. M. Bandy travels from 1,200 to 1,500 miles every month in evangelizing over a territory of not less than 2,500 square miles in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma. He has helped sustain 13 points within this territory, with a combined membership of 376. He reports 164 additions during the year. This is a vast territory for one man's occupancy, and one that is yielding surprising harvests. We need more men like Bro. Bandy.

Galveston has suffered grievously, and the work is still in a struggling condition. George Munro continues his faithful labors with this heroic cohort of the Lord's host. Removals and death have decimated their ranks, but their faces are still to the front and they are bearing the brunt of battle. Galveston is rebuilding, and the outlook is brightening. We do not feel that our great investments here are jeopardized. Our quick and substantial response to the cry of our brethren in the hour of deep affliction and our continued encircling care have given us a prestige and power in the community which will count in days to come. Bro. Munro writes: "The American Christian Missionary Society has been the steadfast friend of the church. But for its constant, timely and generous assistance, the church would long since have closed its doors."

John L. Andrews has done a remarkable work at Mineral Wells. This is a health resort, and the work done here finds its fruitage already in 35 different places and 8 States and Territories. Total additions for the year, 193.

We rejoice with the brethren of the Empire State in their great accomplishment for the Lord of Hosts.

UTAH.

The Salt Lake Church is ministered to by T. W. Pinkerton, who reports 44 additions in the six months of his ministry. They are trying to raise one-half of their debt by the first of January, 1903, with flattering prospects of success. The future is full of hope. Mormonism is a strong antagonistic force. It is materialistic and polygamous, and an open menace to moral and religious advancement.

The church is in better condition than ever in its history.

In Utah we have but the one church—Salt Lake City. Though the population is but 276,749, there are over twenty-six towns which contain a population of 2,000 and over. There are fifteen towns containing a population of 1,000, and over twenty towns containing a population of 600 and over. This territory is dominated by the so-called Church of the Latter-day Saints. It is no longer a conflict, in this State, between religious bodies for prestige; it has become a political and financial contest. The Mormons control both political parties. They dominate the business of the State, so that neither politics nor business can be touched, since the "Saints" can effect anything through the church—business or politics. It is a fact that is commonly known and flagrantly flaunted in the faces of all religious workers, that polygamy is being practiced in this State, as always, though all parties will deny it. If it were only a question of Mormonism that we had to control, that much would be quite different, but the deadening blight of its fell immorality is over everything. Add to this, the State itself is against us. Both political parties, in their very strife for life, must defend, or at least stand for, Mormonism. Business men must keep still, or ally themselves with the monster, or go out of business. The prospects for the future are very encouraging. Salt Lake City Church is in better condition than ever in its history. But it seems to us that if we are ever going to accomplish anything in this great country of need, that we must revolutionize our plans. We must stand by the men who contend for principle, and who stand for the pure and simple gospel. We must stand behind them in such a way that their work shall count; they need fear no retreat, nor the onslaught of any foe, however strong. We need to plan an aggressive campaign, not only here, but in all the contiguous States which are afflicted by this terrible evil. Shall we go forward?

WASHINGTON.

With an area three times as large as the great State of Massachusetts; with 1,600 miles of shore line; practically inexhaustible resources in timber, mineral wealth and manufacturing—this young giant State of the Northwest demands more than passing notice. It has a population of 518,103, an increase of 46 1-2 per cent. in ten years. Seattle increased her population 88 per cent. in the ten years preceding the 1900 census, making the increase since 1880, 1,112½ per cent. Railroads and steamship lines and vast investments of capital indicate that this State will, within a comparatively few years, be the Massachusetts of the Pacific. It is worth while to contemplate for a season the gigantic possibilities of co-operative work in this State. We have 66 congregations and 63 preachers.

B. H. Lingenfelter reports that a census of the churches is now being taken, and the membership will show considerable increase. There are 66 churches in the State and 63 preachers. One new church has been organized. Progress in this country must be slow, in the nature of the case. Everything is new, comparatively, and the process of adjustment retards religious progress to a degree.

Splendid progress is reported at Seattle. A church home has been erected, a net gain of 68 in membership reported, and $225 contributed for missions. Bro. Lingenfelter also organized a church at Fremont, with a membership of 40; a good Sunday-school has been organized, and a property valued at $1,200 secured.

David Husband, working with faithfulness and vigor at Pullman, in this fertile field, reports material improvements in church property, the church trebled in membership, Bible-school trebled, C. W. B. M. trebled, the missionary spirit raised to a high and pure tone, and the church united for a forward movement. Pullman is a point of peculiar advantage, where are located the great Agricultural College and School of Science, with 1,000 students.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

The Board of Western Pennsylvania is under the presidency of Robert S. Latimer, with J. A. Joyce, McKeesport, Pa., as Corresponding Secretary.

We have 14,272 Disciples in Western Pennsylvania, gathered in 108 churches, with 65 ministers. During the year there was a total of 441 additions by missionary effort in this district. H. F. Lutz, supported by the Margaret Oliver Fund, served as District Evangelist. His work was done at McKee's Rocks, Pittsburg (Central) and Wilkinsburg. His full report appears elsewhere.

E. O. Irvin went to the rescue of our discouraged people at Erie when they were trying to dispose of their property. Our Board made it possible for him to take up the work April 1. During this period they have paid all expenses and raised over $500 for repairs and debts, and the congregation now has a property worth $15,000, centrally located and in splendid condition. There have been 20 accessions since April 1 in regular services. Bro. Irvin says: "The fact that we have a church in Erie, the 'Gem City' of the lakes, is due to the good judgment and efforts of the A. C. M. S. What is true of Erie is true of many other places where the Board has assisted in planting and sustaining churches."

WEST VIRGINIA.

A. Linkletter reports West Virginia as a most fruitful field. He says that he could use a dozen preachers in as many fields if only a small support were guaranteed for a beginning. It is significant that this State, sanctified by the life and labors of the Sage of Bethany, the influence of our first real college, and the early history of New Testament triumphs in America, should now be one of the fields that stand before the brotherhood in greatest need of help in the spread of the true gospel.

O. G. White and Claris Yeuell held a meeting at Parkersburg under the auspices of the American Christian Missionary Society, during August, resulting in 80 additions and a re-establishment of the church. J. D. Hull entered upon the pastorate at this important point, September 1.

W. C. Wade is our missionary evangelist in the Elkhorn District. He reports great opposition and widespread prejudice against all work fostered by societies. Lawlessness and vice are not infrequent in this region. The need of houses of worship and the scattered condition of the disciples in the field intensifies the labor and retards progress. So desperate seems the need, often, that the laborer cries out: "We boast of our million and a half disciples, but can not raise the paltry sum of $100,000 for Home Missions that this starving people may be fed."

Martinsburg was organized three years ago by P. A. Cave. A new house was dedicated April 6, and P. P. Hasselvander called as minister. The church now has a membership of 41, and is growing in all departments.

L. A. Beard reports steady and healthy growth in every department at Morgantown. The State University is located here, and over 1,000 young men and women are being taught in the Word. Since its organization this church has made continuous progress in the face of heavy obstacles.

J. C. Reynolds took up the work at Charleston in April, 1901, with a little handful of disciples that had been gathered together by A. Linkletter. Under his guidance the brethren have erected a house costing $4,000, and have taken a leading place among the religious forces of the city. They expect to employ Bro. Reynolds for his entire time next year.

WYOMING.

K. H. Sickafoose is keeping alive the work at three important points in this far-away State—Ten Sleep, Bigtails and Hyattsville, forty-four miles apart. He reports one church organized and 3 added at Ten Sleep. Mormonism hangs over the region like a deadly pall and renders the work of the evangelist as hard as lava digging. In all the 92,000 inhabitants, K. H. Sickafoose is the only preacher of the New Testament Christianity. He begs for larger appropriations and more willing preachers. We need men and means for this neglected corner.

THE WESTERN NEW ENGLAND.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 15, 1902.

DEAR BRO. SMITH:—I am pleased to report that this has been a year of great prosperity and substantial gain for our cause, in this great Pacific Northwest. Our churches have been ably served by faithful ministers, whose only ambition has been to save the souls of men and enlarge the kingdom of God. This is true not only of those churches aided by your Board, but, for the most part, of all the churches in these States. In Washington your Board has aided in supporting J. N. Smith, at Whatcom; W. W. Pew, at Everett; B. H. Lingenfelter and A. C. Vail, at Seattle; H. K. Pendleton, at Tacoma; Dr. J. M. Allen, at Spokane, and David Husband, at Pullman.

At Whatcom the church has built and dedicated a new house, large, modern and well equipped, and with an enlarged and enthusiastic membership is moving forward to greater works. At Everett the C. W. B. M. has generously assumed the support of the work, and A. L. Crim, who succeeds Bro. Pew, is doing a good work and is a valuable addition to the ministry of the State.

At Seattle the First Church has built and occupied a splendid house, and secured for our cause a prestige never before possessed by our people in that important city. The University Place Church has also dedicated a new house and strengthened itself at the very gates of our State University. By the assistance of the State Board, Galen Wood has been sustained at Ballard, the principal suburb of the city, and is building up a strong church. Bro. Lingenfelter has recently organized a new mission church at Fremont, another important suburb of the city. A new house is being built and a preacher will soon be employed. It has been a great year for our cause in this great City of the Sound.

At Tacoma, led by Bro. Pendleton, the Central Church has paid off its entire debt of over $1,800, and has enlarged and improved its house of worship. This church, so long burdened and disheartened, is now well prepared for an onward movement.

At Spokane, the Dean Avenue Church, organized a year ago, has built an excellent house in a splendid location on the North Side, and under the leadership of Dr. J. M. Allen is planting our cause substantially in one of the best portions of this great inland city.

At Pullman, the seat of the State Agricultural College, the largest and best equipped institution of learning in the State, our weak and struggling band of a year ago has become a vigorous and influential church through the self-sacrificing labors of David Husband.

At Davenport, the county-seat of Lincoln, in the great wheat belt of the State, we held a meeting last February and organized a church with forty-eight members, comprising many of the most intelligent and enterprising people in the town. A house of worship will soon be completed and a preacher secured.

At Prosser, an important and growing town in the famous Yakima Valley, we recently held a meeting and organized a church with twenty members. At this writing Bro. Pendleton is there in a good meeting.

Did space permit, it would be gratifying, indeed, to record the splendid work done by the other churches of the State, most of them the grown-up daughters of your Board, and by the faithful ministers they support, but I must forbear, except to state that Bro. J. T. Eshelman, of Tacoma, has spent much time evangelizing in the State with splendid results. In no previous year has our cause made so great and substantial progress in this great State.

In Oregon Bro. J. F. Ghormley, aided by your Board, has done a great work at Portland. Under his leadership the church has greatly enlarged its membership and completed and dedicated its elegant house of worship. In view of the previous condition of our cause in that city, the almost insuperable difficulties to be overcome and the splendid advantages secured, this must be recorded as one of the greatest achievements for our cause in all this great West.

At Pendleton, the chief city in eastern Oregon, our young and struggling church, led by Bro. R. A. Copple, is building a house of worship, which when completed will be perhaps the best, certainly the best located, house in that city.

At La Grande, the next largest city, seventy-five miles east of Pendleton, Bro. O. H. King has had a year of successful work. Other missions supported jointly with the State Board have accomplished good results, which will be duly reported by J. B. Lister, the State evangelist, under whose wise management the work in this State has been greatly enlarged and advanced.

In Idaho our cause has been equally prosperous. S. G. Clay, at Boise; J. A. Pine, at Lewiston; J. W. Wittkamper, at Moscow, and E. Harold, at Genesee, have secured excellent results, as their reports will show. Bro. and Sister Stephens, evangelists for northern Idaho, have accomplished a great work, having organized four new churches and left them strong and well equipped with good houses and faithful preachers. Truly this has been a year of great refreshing from the presence of our Lord in this great field.

My own personal work is briefly summarized as follows: Nearly three months were spent with the churches in the East in the interest of the May Offering. The rest of the year was given to missionary work in Washington, Oregon and Idaho. I visited sixty-five churches and mission points, attended 18 State and district conventions, held 2 meetings, organized 2 new churches, dedicated 2 new houses of worship, delivered in all 137 sermons and missionary addresses, and received into the churches 68 members. * Loss.

A study of this report will show that forty more churches, sixty-two more Endeavor Societies, and fifty-two more Sunday-schools contributed to our work than in 1901. There was a substantial gain from the churches of $4,879.39; from the Endeavor Societies, a gain of $206.99, and from Sunday-schools, a gain of $973.18, a total gain of $6,059.56 from the great body of the people. This feature of the report is encouraging. It shows that our people are steadily but surely grasping the situation in our own land. Last year we gained in the amount contributed by the churches, $2,487.93; this year we almost double the amount of the gain. Last year we gained $895.67 from the Sunday-schools; this year our gain is $973.18. Last year we gained $287.76 from the Endeavor Societies, but this year our gain is but $206.99, a slight decrease in the gain from this source.

It will be seen, also, that we have gained $10,020 in Annuity Funds, while our serious loss has been in Permanent Named Memorial Funds, bequests and special gifts. So great, indeed, was the gain from these last named sources last year that it would have been marvelous had we sustained the record for even another year. Our spendable income —the money actually used in the work—was very substantially increased.

It is with deep regret that we are compelled to again report our income below the $100,000 mark. We have reviewed the field and have tried to convey some measure of the strain that is upon your servants in the attempt to do a $500,000 work upon an $80,000 income. In view of the facts herein presented, we ask again, Shall we be judged for pressing home upon the hearts of men neglected duty? Shall we be censured for our insistent urging upon every follower of our Lord to do his utmost duty, that we may be the better able to do ours? Ye have appointed us unto this task, the greatest work of the age to any brotherhood or to any man. We shall in turn insist that our earnest cries go not unheeded, nor shall we cease to cry until the response shall come from near and far, from every church, from every Bible-school, from every legion of Endeavorers, from every follower of our Lord, in the fullest measure of expected sacrifice and service.

THE GREAT WHITE HARVEST.

"Lift up your eyes" was the heart-cry of our Master. To the disciples of the twentieth century it comes with increased force. The tidal waves of immigration, the commercial and industrial prospects have made this land the desired of all nations. This home land is desired by Jesus Christ, for it is needed for his conquest of the world. Lift up your eyes and

LOOK TO THE EAST.

W. J. Wright sets forth the waiting harvest thus:

"As waits the husbandman for the early and latter rain, so the whole East awaits the simple gospel. In New England we have but 16 preachers and 22 organizations among 6,000,000 persons, who in 500 towns and cities reach out appealing hands. New York City is without doubt the greatest mission field in America, where we have but six churches among 3,500,000 souls and where are scores of splendid openings. Two weak churches are our total strength in New Jersey, where are a score of great cities, one of over 200,000. In 33 of the 100 largest American cities we have no church, and every such city is in the East. We can win here: 400 were added to one of our churches in a single meeting last winter! A splendid house of worship and a congregation apparently but await the coming of an evangelist in order for both to come into our movement. The people of another town petition us to begin work there, and sell us property worth $9,000 for $1,000. Open doors confront us wherever we turn; the eyes of the East are upon us; they beseech us for aid; they challenge us to greater faith and works! How will we meet the challenge?"

LIFT UP YOUR EYES TO THE SOUTH.

One State will speak, but South Carolina is representative. Her message should be multiplied ten times to reach the full conception of the South as a white harvest-field. Dr. C. W. Erwin writes: "In South Carolina the doors of many opportunities hang wide open, and invite our entrance. The place which this State occupies, as the leading cotton-manufacturing State of the South, and second in this industry to Massachusetts alone, demands that her cry be heard. The 1,600 white Disciples of this State are working with all their might, under a heavy pressure. Self-supporting churches can be built up here in a shorter time, as proven by our experience, than even in the growing West.

"South Carolina, bound with the shackles of serfdom to party, cries for the religious freedom which is in Christ. Her appeals must surely stir the hearts of those who hear. Appeals come from all sections of the State. The harvest is white. Shall we gather it? We can only do so with the help and co-operation of our brethren in the stronger States. Shall we have it or shall we not? Brethren, help South Carolina; we need it."

A VOICE FROM THE SOUTH.

We have in the Gulf States a pure Anglo-Saxon language. The infidel is unknown in this territory. I have not seen, in all my travels, a "doubting Thomas." These Southern people are naturally religious. They nearly all belong to "some church," and thousands of them are ready to accept a "more excellent way," when shown to them in the proper spirit. The Southern people are not at all nomadic in their manner of life. They do not move about from post to pillar with the seasons. It is no uncommon occurrence to find a Disciple who has lived in the same community for forty, sixty, seventy years. A church, therefore, never dies. Once established, always living. The cities, the centers of influence, have been badly neglected by the Disciples, but we are now giving attention to them as well as to our rural districts, and are sure to see very gratifying results in the very near future; in fact, we have already seen most marvelous results, from our little city seed-sowing. The people in the South, both in the city and country, will gladly hear the truth, if preached in the love of the truth. Hence if we preach the gospel of Christ to these willing hearers, and have faith in "the power of God unto salvation," we can but look confidently for a glorious harvest of souls, as a result of our co-operation with God. There is no section of this great country of ours fraught with greater opportunities and richer possibilities for the Disciples of Christ, than this fair Southland. O. P. SPIEGEL.

WISCONSIN.

Wisconsin is a representative mission field for us. With a population of 1,937,915, Wisconsin can boast of but 1,280 Disciples. In spite of the fact that but one missionary has been employed in this State, and that only for a period of ten months, one new church has been organized and 49 added to the fold, while 13 other places have been assisted by missionary labor. C. M. Kreidler, of Milwaukee, is the acting Corresponding Secretary. There are but 24 congregations and 14 preachers in the State. Annual meeting in September.

"LIFT UP YOUR EYES TO THE NORTH."

C. M. Kreidler, in his report to this Board, says: "Wisconsin is one of the most important mission fields in the United States: with only one in every 1,514 of the population a Disciple, it is one of the most needy fields; with 75 per cent. of the people either Roman Catholic or (foreign) Lutheran in their religious persuasions, it is one of the most difficult fields; with a net annual gain in membership of 10 per cent., it is one of the most responsive fields; with a per capita average of more than $1.50 for missions, it is one of the most paying fields. Money and men will take Wisconsin for Christ and primitive Christianity."

THE PACIFIC COAST.

What shall we say of the Pacific Coast, a marvelous land, ready for us as it is ready for no other people? Dean Hiram Vankirk voices its cry: "California is a world in miniature as Palestine was a world in miniature, before the deadening sway of the Turk made it stagnant and unproductive. Yet California is twenty times as large as Palestine. Every race is already represented, and, despite exclusion laws, the Oriental races must come in greater numbers. California must become the seat of an immense population. The soil will support it; the climate invites it; the Isthmian Canal and cheapened railroad transportation circumvent and transcend the huge barrier of the Rocky Mountains, and render it possible. Irrigation makes the desert to blossom as a rose, and the presence of large quantities of petroleum makes fuel cheap, and manufacturing profitable.

"The greatest need of California is the gospel of Jesus Christ. Here, as in Chicago and New York, is American Christianity being put to its severest test. We must reclaim ground left fallow since the gold excitement of '49 and '50. We must anticipate the coming of our sons and daughters by church buildings and Christian missionaries. This immigration is at our doors. Between 1880 and 1890, Los Angeles increased in percentage of population beyond any city of the United States. Since the Spanish War there has been a revival of business and an influx of peoples to the whole coast. The sound of the hammer and the saw is on every hand. Here is a growth too new for statistics to tell, but patent to every observer. To break the power of Satan in the old California, and to take the new California for Christ, we must have the help of the American Christian Missionary Society, and that in generous showers of blessing.

"Besides the importance of California in itself, there is the New Pacific and Asia with its millions at last awakening to the charms of civilization. Help us plant the gospel strongly in this great land."

Again hear the voice from the Occident:

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

The needs of this field are great. All Southern California is rapidly filling with people. The cities and towns are extending their limits; the vacant lots are turning into homes, the desert places into gardens and orchards. The Government is constructing a deep-water harbor, giving us easy access to the growing markets of the Orient and the most convenient port of entry for the world's commerce, that will in the near future be flowing through the Panama Canal. Capital is vying with Nature, Providence and the Government in filling this sunny

Southland with a prosperous people. All these towns and communities are being tied together with electric lights and bands of steel, practically making of them one magnificent, cosmopolitan metropolis; while a railroad is nearing completion which will afford the shortest and quickest possible transit for the Middle and Eastern States to the ports of the Pacific Coast. All this is quickening the activities of the church. She, too, is busy enlarging her borders and straightening her stakes. In this the Disciples of Christ labor at a great disadvantage, because of limited resources. We, with ability to think only in terms of tens, must enter into competition with the denominations, who figure in the thousands. The Baptist Church is sending $3,000 annually to Southern California, sustaining 42 missionary pastors and one general superintendent. The Presbyterian Church sends $7,500 annually into this field, supporting 51 mission pastors. The Methodist Episcopal Church (North) sent last year, to the same territory, $5,534, with which it was enabled to sustain 60 men to advance the interests of Methodism. While the churches of the New Testament faith and order, with the greatest plea of the centuries, expended last year, through their National Missionary Societies, in this growing empire, only $700. The apostolic churches had evangelists and pastors and teachers for the edifying of the body of Christ. We also need them; but, for the lack of means, many have them not. The denominational churches, with all their efficient agencies, can not move the people for the lack of the gospel; and we can not reach them for the lack of efficient agencies. And the fields are white with the harvest. Brethren, our needs are great and imperative. We pray the Lord of the harvest to send us help."

THE CRY OF THE GREAT NORTHWEST.

"That we may form some adequate conception of the importance of this great Pacific Northwest as a mission field for our people, let us take a hasty glance at the country itself. Beginning with the western ridge of the Rocky Mountains and extending to the Pacific Ocean, we have a territory equal in extent to the States of Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, the Virginias, and all of New England thrown in. This territory embraces the great basins of the Columbia and Snake Rivers, the Mississippi and Missouri of the West, where are found the finest farming and grazing lands on the continent. Dr. Strong, as early as 1885, in his chapter on the supremacy of the West, speaking of the great Columbia Basin in eastern Washington, says: "Experiment has proved that these 14,000,000 acres of peculiar soil are probably the best wheat lands in the world." Nearly twenty years of practical tillage has changed his probability into certainty and multiplied his 14,000,000 acres by ten, leaving, besides, pasturage on a thousands hills sufficient to fatten the nation's flocks and herds. Add to this its great mountain ranges packed with every mineral used by man, from gold to steel; its vast forests of the finest timbers in the world; its great inland seas with 2,000 square miles of navigable water and its 1,600 miles of coast line, its wide-open highway to the ocean, forming one of the largest and safest harbors in the world, and by its tropical ocean currents, giving to this whole country a mild and temperate climate for both summer and winter unsurpassed anywhere in our land.

This is the country as nature has given it to us. To-day it has become the home of a great and growing people gathered from all the world. Four great railroads from the far East are threading its valleys and lacing its mountains with a network of competing lines, giving the eager multitudes access thereto and making highways to the markets of the world. The brain and brawn and indomitable energy that create wealth and forge great nations are here in force. An ever-enlarging tide of immigration is increasing its population at the rate of 25 per cent. per annum. Its recent towns have grown into great cities, and the foundations of new towns, soon to be cities, are laid with every passing year. Such a land and such a people must be won for the kingdom of our Lord, and I verily believe that now are to be found the church's greatest opportunities. Here we have the last, largest and best end of the New World, vast, as we have seen, in territorial limits, exhaustless in resources of wealth, in forest, field and mine, interpenetrated by great continental railroads and magnificent ocean water-ways, rapidly filling up with a mixed intelligent and cosmcpolitan people, equipped with the very best resources of the highest civilization, and sitting on the highway of the world's commerce as it pushes its way across the Pacific to quicken the sleeping energies of pagan Asia into the mighty activities of a Christian civilization.

At our door lies the great Alaska country, with its treasures of gold, its immense fisheries, and its 600,000 square miles soon to become the home of another great and powerful people.

The extension of our national domain across the Pacific Ocean, and the nature and magnitude of the traffic arising therefrom, emphasize in a high degree the importance of this field. Here we are brought face to face with the great Orient, and into living touch with the very heart of the heathen world. Then, too, all here is new and the elements are plastic. A thousand dollars to-day will account for more than ten thousand a decade hence.

Looking over the whole situation, I am fully persuaded that no part of our great country offers more inviting fields where the primitive gospel may be so successfully planted and so thoroughly potential for the unity of the church and the redemption of the world. Here on these Western shores have come to us opportunities and responsibilities for the extension of our Saviour's kingdom, favorable and far-reaching, it seems to me, beyond any now open to our people in any part of our land. In these splendid opportunities our great brotherhood should hear the voice of God and follow in his stately steppings.

WM. F. COWDEN.

MANITOBA.

To the north an empire is rounding into form; British America is to rank second only to the United States in its wealth and influence. We are called upon with earnest, pleading voices of our own brethren to enter into that great Northwest and grow with its growth and strengthen with its strength. M. P. Hayden is pleading for them: "Area, 76,000 square miles. Population, 255,211. Population of Winnipeg, 45,000. Christian Churches in the Province, 2; Christian ministers, 3; Disciples of Christ, 470. About half the Disciples are members at Portage la Prairie and Carman; the others are scattered about over the Province. With proper assistance and effort, we might soon have prosperous churches in Winnipeg, Cypress River, Swan River, Riding Mountain, Brandon, and several other places. Arrangements are now in progress for planting a Church of Christ in Winnipeg this autumn. Only one preacher is devoting his whole time to the work of the gospel. We need tenfold as many preachers, and all of them giving their whole time to the work of the Lord. To do this requires that thousands of dollars shall be provided for the furtherance of the gospel in this Province. Other organizations, as the Presbyterians, Methodists, Baptists, Episcopalians, Roman Catholics, are actively and aggressively pushing forward their work. We can not expect to succeed without a corresponding expenditure of money and effort to establish the cause of primitive Christianity in this land.

"The few scattered Disciples in this Province most earnestly and pleadingly appeal to the million and more Disciples in the United States to help them to sound forth the plea of primitive Christianity and Christian union throughout this Province. Will you not help us to go in and possess the land for pure Christianity before it is overrun with the noxious weeds of skepticism and sectarianism? Help us to pre-empt this new and growing country for the Lord Jesus Christ. Trainloads of people are annually coming to western Canada from the United States. See 'Migration to the Canadian Northwest' in the American Review of Reviews for September of this year. Be as zealous, courageous and sacrificing for the truth in Christ as others are for human doctrines and traditions. Behold the vision of the man of Manitoba, praying to you and saying, 'Come over into Manitoba, and help us.' Will you not answer this prayer, and come to the help of the Lord against the mighty hosts to be overcome?"

Our Secretary visited the few brethren living in Montreal; a hall was rented for the Lord's Day and 32 Disciples united in the service of the Lord's Supper. At the evening service one made the good confession and was baptized by our Secretary; this is believed to be the first person ever baptized by our brethren in Montreal. Our brethren there are pleading for help to plant the cause. Montreal is a city of 300,000 people. There is not a church that is simply Christian in the entire Province of Quebec; the few sheep are pleading for the undershepherd to lead them into green pastures and the still waters of God's truth. If the cause is planted in Montreal, it must be by outside help.

LIFT UP YOUR EYES TO PORTO RICO.

Their cry has come into the ears of the Lord God of Sabaoth; it should enter into our hearts.

"The Porto Rican is no less heathen than the Turk or Chinaman. We must save Porto Rico, or else Porto Rico will disgrace our flag. The crime and vice of Porto Rico will not only influence the character of America, but henceforth the whole world will charge the sins of Porto Rico against the American people. Ninety per cent. of the population is anti-Roman Catholic.

The Porto Ricans are like so many innocent birds, with mouths wide open, ready to swallow anything that might happen to fall into them. The Spiritualists are taking advantage of the situation, and deceiving the people, while the Christians make pillows of the present opportunities. The Porto Rican, when unprejudiced, is quick to perceive the truth, and when he is once convinced of the truth, he does not depart from it, hence is immune to all false doctrine. But once his religious nature is filled with the husks of false doctrine, he will forever be practically immune to the truth. The denominations are spending hundreds of dollars to our one, and are fast covering the territory; soon we shall have no territory left and when we enter where others have preceded us, we shall be called intruders, and thus our tardiness will have shorn the truth of its power.

Three years ago the doors of Porto Rico were wide open to us. We could have, by proper effort, taken the whole island for the Christ and his church. To-day the doors are open, but not so open as they were then. The few towns that are yet unoccupied by the denominations have heard of our work in the San Juan and Bayamon districts, and committees have waited on me, pleading with me to enter their towns and take them in the name of Christ and his church, before some denomination gets in ahead of us. The cry is, "Come! Come at once! We want the pure and unadulterated gospel! We don't want to be given over to religious parties and the creeds and dogmas of men! We are poor. We do not know the truth, but we have heard that you oppose, as no others, the domination of men over the consciences of men, hence we beg you to come before the denominations get in possession of our town." Like Joshua, I bring you a cluster of the fruit, consisting of 139 souls, saved by the power of the gospel, preached by one who twelve months ago did not know one word of Spanish, and two natives who are as yet babes in Christ, and uneducated.

Rome is organized against us as never before. The denominations have preoccupied all of the best land. Spiritualism has preceded us and has a strong following. The press is against us, and abuses us, and is determined to drive us off the island. The Americans, as a rule, are stumbling-blocks to our work. And even many officials of the Government are indirectly opposed to us. Mobs are raised against us. There are giants there, and they have chariots of iron, but, by the help of God, we can take the land, and the Lord has set before us the goodly land, and we must go in at once and take it, or else we shall be turned back into the wilderness to die, and our carcasses shall be eaten up by the unclean vultures of internal strife, our bones shall bleach on the desert of infidelity, while the giants of opposition so fortify themselves in the land that not even the future generations shall be able to drive them out.

W. M. TAYLOR.

LIFT UP YOUR EYES TO THE CITIES.

Was ever such a harvest-field presented to any people? As go the cities, in morals, in religion, in politics, so will go the nation. We must save the cities or be saved from the cities. Your Board is doing a work, necessarily feeble, in Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland, Brooklyn Borough, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Charleston, S. C., Mobile, New Orleans, Galveston, San Antonio (Mexican), San Francisco, Spokane, Minneapolis. We ought to be in 500 cities with force and power, trying to rightly solve the destiny of America as it will be vitally affected by the cities.

LIFT UP YOUR EYES TO THE STRANGER WITHIN THE GATES.

The United States Census, 1900, shows the foreign-born population to be 10,460,085. Of these, 2,669,164 are from Germany; 1,619,469, Ireland; 156,999; Scandinavia, 1,067,467; Japan, 81,590; China, 106,659. Their children bring the foreign population to 26,198,939. To win this population is confessedly a very difficult and a very slow work. The first generation is hard to reach and the second is none too easy, yet when once reached no better men can be found anywhere than some of these who before they knew the gospel were aliens in the land; in our churches are hundreds of their children who become the full equals of our own children in every Christian grace. We must save these people as a simple matter of self-preservation. We must be largely influenced by them, and this makes necessary our earnest efforts to bring them a knowledge of the gospel of the New Testament, free from the formalism and indifference of the state religion to which they are accustomed. We must save them because it is the command of our Lord. Every people is by right of gift the inheritance of our Lord; he sold his all to purchase them. They are his treasure; it is the duty of the church to make them his possession in fact; this is the divine purpose of the church. Let us apprehend the divine purpose of God and without hesitation work for its realization. Was ever another land burdened with such responsibilities as are thrust upon us because of this mingling of the races? The Rome of the Cæsars gathered no such heterogeneous population. Our cities are no longer American, not even Anglo-Saxon. New York and Chicago, next to Berlin and Hamburg, are the largest German cities in the world; New York and Boston are the largest Irish cities in the world. A new Naples with its possible Vesuvius is on Manhattan Island; the Northwest is largely occupied by Scandinavians; the mining districts are densely populated with Poles and Hungarians and Italians. More immigrants came to our shores last year than ever before. They no longer represent the best classes of their home lands. O Church of Christ! how shall we meet the crisis? Shall we succumb to the peril, or shall we meet it in the spirit of conquest and by the sign of the cross conquer? This great work is peculiarly the work of our Board of Home Missions; it is too large, too slow, too costly, for local forces to do much with it. We ought to have $50,000 next year for this especial work.

A FAMINE IN THE LAND.

There is a famine in parts of our home land. "Not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord."

The one little mission in Phœnix is the only church that is simply Christian, in all the region from El Paso, Tex., to Redlands, Cal., and from Salt Lake City to the Mexican border; it is the only church of our people sustaining a minister in all that vast territory.

The one church at Salt Lake City is the only church standing for simple New Testament Christianity in all Utah.

Lift up your eyes to Nevada, and we have not a church in the entire State.

H. M. Bandy, our missionary, has a field that is 2,500 square miles in extent, and the nearest of the thirteen points to which he preaches, are fifty miles apart.

In all Wyoming, we have only four congregations; in the entire State of North Dakota we have only four small churches. In the entire Northern Peninsula of Michigan, we have no church that stands for apostolic Christianity.

New York is ripe and ready for us, with 4,500,000 people who have never heard our plea, and who could not hear the simple gospel of the New Testament without going away from home. Lift up your eyes to Vermont, with only two small churches of our brotherhood: New Hampshire without a church that stands with us; Rhode Island, with only one congregation; New Jersey, with only two churches, Delaware, with two churches.

There is a famine in the land. If one goes into New England or New York, and says he belongs to the Christian Church, the people will not know what he means, so little known are we in that land. Lift up your eyes to the famine land in our own country. Hundreds of our churches should have their own missionaries at work in these great harvest-fields.

LIFT UP YOUR EYES TO THE FAR-STRETCHING FIELDS.

If we are to be reckoned as in dead earnest, we ought to shake this land with the old Jerusalem gospel; a renewed evangelism should characterize us and the glad cry of the harvesters should be heard as we bring in the sheaves to our King, all through the year. Our Home Board should lead in this work, and by sending out a hundred missionary evangelists should pave the way to the largest ingathering ever known among us. But the rank and file must do this. No Board is in itself equal to it. "Say not ye, There are yet four months and then cometh the harvest? Lift up your eyes and look on the fields, for they are white already to the harvest." May the Lord help us to realize our day of visitation, and go forth to the gathering of the harvest.

We need brethren, to catch a vision of the harvest; this large, this dead-ripe, waiting harvest. We need more prayer, more hope, more courage, more conscience, more confidence, more real consecration. Underneath all this is the need to arouse the Church of Christ to its duty and its splendid opportunity; the love of Christ constraining us is the only power adequate to lay hold of this world in its sin and sorrow and ignorance and selfishness, and lift it up to God, redeemed.

We are living in an age of unparalleled prosperity, of lavish living; we must needs call in tones that will be heard and heeded, that in all the comfort and luxury of our lives we must not forget the cause of God. When Peter the Hermit went preaching the Crusades through Europe, the people flocked in masses to hear him. When his sermon was finished, they swarmed to the standard of the cross, crying: "It is the will of God, it is the will of God." So started the Crusades that broke the long night of the Dark Ages, awakened slumbering Europe, and made possible modern civilization. So may we cry when we see this greatest of all mission fields in the world, and see, too, how God has placed us in the heart of this land; "It is the will of God." When we see how wonderfully God is leading and pointing the way to our winning it for Christ and New Testament Christianity, we shall cry: "It is the will of God, it is the will of God, that we win our home land for the Master." May there go up a mighty cry to God that an enlarged missionary spirit be wrought in us through prayer, and that we go forth upon our knees to the winning of souls to Christ. May there be careful self-examination that we purify our hearts and lives and as a brotherhood make our bodies temples fitted for the indwelling of God through his Holy Spirit, so that God may use us for his high purposes. May we, by comparing ourselves with ourselves and then with others, provoke one another to love and good works.

HOME MISSIONS NO SECOND PLACE.

For years, in the face of many obstacles and many heavy odds, we have labored to place the work of Home Missions in its proper place in relation to all our co-operative enterprises; inch by inch this work has been pushed forward, seeking only the solid support which is the expression of conviction. No sporadic spurts have been suggested or inspired, no straining of resources such as invariably result in disastrous reaction, have been indulged. Our growth has been solid, the result of the growing conviction that we have heretofore neglected this Home work, and is now full of promise of greater advancement than has been yet attained.

Your Board pleads against any separation of themselves from this work in the thought of our brotherhood. We ask for a deepening conviction upon the part of ministers, elders, deacons and members that the work of preaching the gospel to America is their work and not the work of the Board. The Board is but a committee to do this work in the name of the great brotherhood.

SPECIAL MISSIONS FOR SPECIAL CHURCHES.

We desire to commend to the consideration of the churches, and the pastors everywhere, the "special objective" plan of work. In the very nature of the case, the need of America, and the call to its evangelization, must be so immense, and the impression left upon each individual church so large, that the work wrought is necessarily diffusive. It has been the experience of every other religious body that where churches specialize their work at home, the interest magnifies, and the offerings multiply. We therefore recommend that each church, so far as lies in its power, shall take up some particular work, and call that its own; inform itself upon all its needs, study its possibilities, make large plans for its development, and hold itself responsible for its ultimate outcome. If we can enlist our churches thus, all along the line, we shall be able to report, at the next annual meeting, such a tremendous advancement along every line as shall thrill the world. Considering our accomplishments upon the general lines of diffusive endeavor, we have much to be proud of, but we are certain that under this suggested plan, the results must be tenfold that which we are able to report this year. But be it remembered, when once a church assumes the support of a particular field, it is a serious backward step to abandon such special work upon some slight pretext. Such sporadic effort is fatal to progress, either in the field or in the missionary life of the church.

OUR GRATITUDE.

We find ourselves under continued gratitude to our faithful ministers who have presented the work to their people; to our church papers who have given us large space to keep it before our brethren; to the increasing number of personal friends who are carrying this work on their hearts—to all these we acknowledge our indebtedness.

OUR FUTURE.

The future of this plea for Christian union, by a restoration of the New Testament church, lies parallel to the future of our Home Mission work. Our future is wrapped in the interest our brethren and sisters and our children will take in winning America.

If we could only get our people to see and know the fields, their needs and our opportunities, the missionary situation would be transformed in a decade. Our largest hope is in Boys' and Girls' Rally Day for America—here lies not only the possibility of an increase of income, but the larger hope of the future. If our children are trained in Home Missions from their childhood, to a sense of obligation and opportunity in this great home field, when they reach maturer years this seed will bear larger fruit.

It is easier to imagine, than to estimate in figures, what glorious results would follow if the spirit of interest in Home Missions would spread among all our congregations. The greatest purely business proposition that can engage the hearts and heads of men to-day is the dissemination of the gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the continent of America. As an enterprise it has passed the period of sentiment and can no longer be relegated to religious dillettanteism. It challenges the boldest and the bravest among men of business experience and sagacity. Its problems present no easy tasks. The trust of winning America is among the most sacred and demands the most delicate administration and the supremest fidelity.

The evangelization of America can be accomplished only by the sanest, the surest, and the most persistent application of business principles in the obedience to the Divine law, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature;" "Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem and in Judæa, and in Samaria and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

No sporadic evangelism or intermittent revivalism will suffice for the fulfillment of the law, "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

In profound appreciation of the transcendent obligations that have accrued in the providence of God to us as a people, and in prayerful acknowledgment of our exalted privileges under God, we stand to-day, as Moses did upon the mountain-top of Nebo, and see the whole land before us, waiting for the coming of the gospel of the Son of God. We ask that this Convention and the brotherhood represented by it shall reach toward the mark of the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. The winning of America to Christ that through America Christ may win the world to God. Respectfully submitted,

BENJAMIN LYON SMITH, Cor Sec. S. M. COOPER, Chairman.

GEORGE B. RANSHAW, Assist. Sec.

The report of the Board was adopted as a whole.

PRAYER-MEETING COMMITTEE.

B. B. Tyler presented the report of the committee to prepare topics for the mid-week prayer-meeting, as follows:

The Committee on the Preparation of the Mid-week Prayer-meeting Topics for 1903 begs leave to report:

1. That the Topics for the coming year are now ready for distribution, and that our publishing-houses have generously provided a supply sufficient for every delegate and visitor at this Convention to have a copy.

2. That while faithful work on these Topics was done by the Committee, it is not claimed by any means that they are perfect. The time allowed it was entirely too short for the Committee to have done its best work on them.

3. It recommends that hereafter the Prayer-meeting Committee be given the whole year, from Convention to Convention, to do its work, or, in other words, that the appointment by the President be made one year in advance, and, in harmony with this recommendation, that the Prayer-meeting Committee for 1904 be named at this Convention.

4. It also recommends that the Committee be increased from five to seven.

5. Believing that these Topics, when well prepared and rightly used, will strongly make for the unity and spirituality of our brotherhood, the Committee urges their widespread adoption by our churches.

GEORGE DARSIE, W. A. CRUSINBERRY,
B. A. ABBOTT, B. B. TYLER,
A. C. SMITHER, Committee.

The report was adopted.

On motion of Benjamin L. Smith, the Chair appointed the following

PRAYER-MEETING COMMITTEE FOR 1904.

GEORGE DARSIE, Kentucky. F. J. STINSON, Iowa.
A. M. HARVUOT, Ohio. JAY E. LYNN, Illinois.

On motion of G. A. Hoffmann, the reports of the various Boards were referred to the appropriate committees.

G. W. Muckley presented the report of the Board of Church Extension. (For copy of this report, write to G. W. Muckley, Waterworks Building, Kansas City, Mo.)

Chas. H. White, Assistant Corresponding Secretary of the Board, was presented to the Convention, and made a short address.

C. H. Plattenburg presented the report of the Superintendent of Christian Endeavor, as follows:

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NATIONAL SUPERINTENDENT OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPT 30, 1902.

There was a time when Christian Endeavor was considered, by many at least, as an experiment. It is now an institution. Its place is well defined, and so is its work. There is not the growth in numbers or in enthusiasm for Endeavor work as such, but the society was not organized for growth or to attract attention to itself. Its purpose was to furnish a place of easy beginning in practical work for young Christians. It is successful in just the degree in which it fulfills that purpose. And perhaps a beginning is quite as easy when there is not the strenuous effort to secure large numbers or attract attention which was manifested in the earlier history of the society. Judged in the larger way, the last year has been a very successful one in Christian Endeavor work.

The work of superintendent during the last year has been more to promote the spiritual welfare of the societies, to interest them in the systematic study of the Scriptures and to enlist them in the missionary enterprises of the church than to develop the Endeavor Society as such. Frequent letters concerning missionary work have been sent by the State superintendents and some of them have been sent directly from the office of the national superintendent. The response to these has not been as quick and hearty as could have been desired, but the same is true of all such appeals, and yet they are a part of the general education which produces the total of work and money given. It will surely be wise to continue the sending of such appeals and educational literature.

It might be wise to provide a way by which the national superintendent could come into somewhat closer touch with the Endeavor workers of the various States. If he could attend the State Conventions, where his presence would be desirable, it would certainly further the Endeavor work as well as the missionary enterprises of the church. At present the superintendent has no funds for traveling expenses at his disposal, and the State superintendents rarely have any. So, personal contact with the workers is very slight.

The most serious question in Christian Endeavor to-day is the age problem. Those who have been in the society for several years feel that they ought to leave the work to younger ones and take their place among the more advanced workers of the church. But they hesitate to leave the society lest their going shall discourage others who are younger in the work. But if they remain in the society the Endeavor prayer-meeting will be as hard a place for the timid and inexperienced to begin as is the general prayer-meeting of the church. Committee work, too, will fall to the ground between those who have done it so long that they have lost enthusiasm for it and those who are too timid to do it because there are more experienced members in the society. In present conditions if the more experienced drop out of the society it looks like desertion and brings discouragement upon all.

The trouble is acute in very many societies, and the remedy very difficult to suggest. The best suggestion I am able to offer is that members of the society be graduated at the end of seven years of service. Most children are in the Junior Society for seven years, graduating into the Intermediate Society at the age of fourteen. They are Intermediates for four years. Then, when he has been seven years in the Young People's Society, he will have been eighteen years an Endeavorer. The principles of the society will have become a real part of his character.

Other interests of the church will call loudly for his service. If he answers the call, he will seem to desert the Endeavor Society. But let him be regularly graduated—recognized by some diploma or some graduation service—and his going will be a source of encouragement and a spur to the remaining members, rather than a regret and discouragement to all. Of course, judgment and discretion must be exercised or the plan might work harm rather than good. I suggest this as the best solution at hand, hoping that the societies where such an expedient is needed will carefully adopt it. It is quite apparent that some such solution must be found or all the societies will suffer.

No special effort is made by your superintendent to secure statistics of missionary money given by the Endeavor Societies, outside of the reports of our missionary secretaries. You will find such information in their reports. It must be remembered, however, that only a small part of the money given by Endeavorers is given in the name of the Endeavor Society. So they are not judged largely by such reports.

The following table will show the gain or loss of each State in the number of societies, so far as reported:

In presenting this, my fourth annual report, I also tender my resignation as superintendent. The increasing duties of a pastorate, and other pressing obligations of a personal nature, do not leave me the time or strength to serve the work as its great importance demands. Thanking the Convention for the confidence and consideration it has shown me, I respectfully ask that some one else be chosen as national superintendent.

Respectfully submitted, JOHN E. POUNDS,
770 FRANKLIN AVE., Cleveland, O. National Superintendent.

I. N. McCash, of Iowa, presented the following report of the Committee on Recommendations, which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RECOMMENDATIONS.

Your Committee on Recommendations has reviewed with deep interest and great carefulness all questions submitted to its consideration, and has formulated its conclusions, without a statement of the reasons which guided it in submitting its findings to the Convention. It is with profound gratitude to our Great Husbandman we acknowledge that peace and good will, brought to earth by our Master, have bordered our pathway with spiritual flowers of rarest fragrance and blessed the fields cultivated by his disciples with yellow fruit and abundant harvest. We would therefore recommend:

1. That plans of work, now operated, which are yielding results in keeping with the spirit and purpose of the New Testament, be continued.

2. That the evangelism of the New Testament, so successfully reproduced by the Disciples of Christ during the past three-quarters of a century, be fostered by pastors, churches, Endeavor Societies, Sunday-schools, State and National Boards, till every part of the land shall hear the call, "Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters," and take hold of the pierced hand reached down to help.

3. That the decision of the Convention to hold its sittings in St. Louis at the time of the World's Fair in that city, be re-endorsed, and that the Convention of 1905 be held on the Pacific Coast.

4. That we reaffirm the policy announced at a previous Convention that the American Christian Missionary Society should not do missionary work in the strong States of Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri and Ohio, except as necessity should demand aid in city evangelization, or among foreigners within their territory; but rather should go to the weaker States, leaving the State boards of the above-named group to carry forward the work within their respective boundaries.

5. That the interest of our educational institutions be kept constantly before the people for gifts, patronage and higher scholarly attainments and culture for the ministry. Christian schools alone can give a symmetrical development of the young. Our age needs the white light of divine revelation to shine upon the facts of philosophy and science, and the standards of literature and art outlined in their curricula.

6. That the memorial to this Convention from the Prohibition mass-meeting be endorsed in its statements of the baneful evil caused by the liquor traffic, and the imperative duty of every Disciple of Christ to oppose by influence and law till this evil be destroyed; but the assignment of a place for an address, annually, before this Convention, "on the liquor traffic as it affects this Society in its work of planting Churches of Christ throughout America, and the saving of men from sins personal, social and political," be left to the discretion of the Acting Board, recommending that they exercise the same precaution that they would in setting apart an hour for the discussion of gambling and social impurity, both of which menace the individual members and kingdom of God. It is suggested that an address on good citizenship be given at the Christian Endeavor session. The second request of the memorial, which relates to railroad rates, is also referred to the Acting Board, with the request that an additional day for sale of tickets be secured, if possible; and, furthermore, the matter of securing railroad courtesies for ministers engaged in temperance or prohibition evangelism be referred to the State Boards where such ministers or workers are listed.

Respectfully submitted,

I. N. McCash, Chmn. E. C. Sanderson.
M. E. Harlan, O. W. Phillips,
I. J. Spencer, S. B. Moore.

Howard T. Cree, of Missouri, addressed the Convention on "Mahomet and the Mountain."

Adjourned with prayer by P. Y. Pendleton, of Ohio.

Afternoon.

The afternoon session opened at 2:30, Vice-Prest. Carey E. Morgan, of Virginia, presiding. The devotional service was conducted by O. W. Lawrence, of Missouri, with R. M. Hopkins, of Kentucky, as leader of song.

A. L. Orcutt read the report of the Board of Ministerial Relief. (For copy of this report, write to A. L. Orcutt, Indianapolis, Ind.)

Chaplain J. B. McCleery, of Illinois, addressed the Convention on "The Great Debt of the Reformation."

Howard C. Rash, of Kansas, presented the report of the Committee on Boys' and Girls' Rally Day.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOYS' AND GIRLS' RALLY DAY.

Your Committee on Boys' and Girls' Rally Day respectfully presents the following report:

Resolved, That as the observance of Children's Day has aligned the children for Foreign Missions, so should the observance of Boys' and Girls' Rally Day align them for Home Missions, to the glory of our God, our homes and our native land.

Resolved, That this Convention urges upon the entire brotherhood the faithful and energetic observance of the day; and to this end solicits the especial attention and earnest efforts of all preachers and of all Sunday-school superintendents, teachers, secretaries, Junior superintendents, and choristers.

Resolved, That this action is based upon a conviction that faithful and universal observance of the day is made necessary by the widespread need for instruction with reference to those vital principles which make a systematic, proportionate contribution of money for the Lord's work an imperative Christian duty, as well as by a concern for the general welfare of the schools and the churches.

Resolved, That the policy of returning to each State, for its own work, 50 per cent. of its Rally Day contributions be continued.

Signed by: HOWARD C. RASH, F. M. TINDER,
R. H. INGRAM, E. J. MEACHAM,
A. M. HOOTMAN, O. P. SPIEGEL,
Committee.

On motion, the report was adopted.

Geo. B. Peak, of Iowa, presented the following

C. A. Freer, of Ohio, read the report of the Committee on Christian Endeavor, which was adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Your Committee on Christian Endeavor begs leave to report as follows:

We recognize the Christian Endeavor purpose and principles to be the most potential influence among the young people of the church. It has served, and is serving, a great end in the development of our young people in the devotional, practical, missionary and civic sides of Christian life. Your Committee would recommend the following:

1. Inasmuch as fully half our churches have no organized Endeavor work, and that so many societies are in a disorganized condition, we recommend that strenuous efforts be put forth to organize and reorganize societies until we have a society, in every Christian Church, worthy of this exalted name.

2. The liquor traffic in its legalized and law-protected form being the greatest enemy to Christian Endeavor, we believe that every true Endeavorer should recognize this as a real foe to all Christian work, and that the time has ceased when we should be silent and inactive with reference to this great evil. As Endeavorers, we should agitate, educate and vote against this monster vice and spare no effort which may result in its overthrow, or at least in destroying our complicity with it. Christian citizenship should be inculcated, and it should ever be emphasized in our Endeavor work that a man's Christianity should be just as strong at the ballot-box as at the prayer-meeting, and on election day as when he sits at the Lord's table.

3. Fully appreciating the value of Christian Endeavor in the faithful fulfillment of its prayer-meeting pledge, we would recommend that pastors and C. E. leaders seek to lead our young people into a larger field of practical work in such lines as may be practicable in the several localities.

4. We most heartily recommend the mission study course now being adopted so largely by the various young people's organizations of our country. We would urge our missionary secretaries, pastors, and State C. E. superintendents to speak out long and loud on this matter, till every society is enlisted.

5. We recommend the observance of Forefathers' Day by all our societies in the interest of Ministerial Relief.

6. In order that Christian Endeavor among the Disciples of Christ may play its part in promoting the spirit of union and fellowship among all the people of God, we urge hearty co-operation in all phases of Endeavor activity, in local unions, in State associations and assemblies, and in the international organization. Our people must not be timid nor indifferent to interdenominational Endeavor work, but should assume our share of responsibility and bear our proportion of the burden. In this direction we recommend greater activity, believing that only most gratifying results will follow.

7. We urge all of our Endeavor Societies to respond cheerfully and liberally to the call which has been made in behalf of Porto Rico. Our young people could not do a wiser or more practical work than to take upon themselves the responsibility of evangelizing this most needy field which lies so near to our own doors. We recommend this watchword, "Porto Rico for Christ," and an earnest effort on the part of all Endeavorers to bring its realization.

Christian Endeavor among the Disciples of Christ being a growing institution, and demanding thereby greater consideration at our hands and more time in which to discuss its various phases of work than can be afforded at the mass-meeting which we are accustomed to hold on Saturday evenings, we recommend to the Acting Board of the American Christian Missionary Society that they, in connection with the National Superintendent, arrange for a sectional meeting of one afternoon during the Convention, for a conference of State Superintendents and C. E. workers to consider practical methods of C. E. work.

It is with genuine regret that your Committee learns of the resignation of John E. Pounds, who for a number of years has served faithfully and efficiently as our National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor. While it does not come within the province of this Committee to act on this resignation, we do wish, however, to express to him our sincere thanks, and to manifest in this way our most cordial appreciation for the devotion he has shown to this work.

To further promote the interests of Christian Endeavor, we recommend that a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) be appropriated from the treasury of the American Christian Missionary Society, as an expense fund to be used by our National Superintendent, at his discretion, in promoting this cause.

C. A. FREER, B. L. ALLEN,
CLAUDE E. HILL, S. M. BERNARD.

W. M. Taylor, San Juan, P. R., addressed the Convention on "Porto Rico," outlining his mission work in the island.

Adjourned with prayer by D. R. Dungan, of Missouri.

EVENING.

I. N. McCash, of Iowa, presided.

W. E. M. Hackleman conducted the service of praise.

J. H. Garrison, representing the Committee on Centennial, appointed at the Minneapolis Convention in 1901, read the following report:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CENTENNIAL.

Your Committee appointed one year ago at Minneapolis to report to this Convention recommendations concerning a method of marking the first centennial of our history, as a religious movement, by some appropriate memorial, beg leave to submit the following:

It has seemed wise to God's people in all ages to erect memorials to commemorate important events in their history, and to signalize any special token of God's favor to them. These have served as expressions of gratitude to God, for his blessing, on the part of those erecting them, and as monuments to perpetuate the memory of the events down to future generations.

Nations have also adopted this custom, and every nationality has its memorial days which perpetuate the memory of its birth, or of its deliverance from its enemies, or of some great public measure which has proved a blessing to the people. These serve to keep alive the fires of patriotism, and to perpetuate the memory of those events and achievements which have given the nation being and character.

Among the most important events in the world's history are the births of those great religious reformations which have served to purify the Christian faith from the corruptions which have come in through the imperfections of men, and to free it from bondage to human authority in order that it may have free course to run and be glorified in the earth. The latest of these great historic movements which have assumed world-wide proportions, and which have become mighty factors in molding the religious thought and life of men, is that which is represented by this Convention of the Disciples of Christ, which had its origin in the first decade of the preceding century, in our own beloved America, and whose growth has been one of the most remarkable of the religious phenomena of modern times.

As our nation dates its birth from the Declaration of Independence, so it would seem that this movement to restore the Christianity of Jesus Christ, and the unity of his church, may well date its beginning from the Declaration and Address issued by Thomas Campbell, and approved by his son, Alexander Campbell, Sept. 9, 1809. The centennial of this historical event will occur Sept. 9, 1909, a little less than seven years hence. It is not too early, therefore, in the judgment of your Committee, and of the Minneapolis Convention which authorized this Committee, to begin active preparation for a suitable commemoration of the beginning of this restoration movement, and to signalize the completion of one hundred years of fruitful history.

In considering the form which our centennial memorial should take, it is the conviction of your Committee that, in order to harmonize with the character of the event to be commemorated, it should be in the nature of practical benevolence, looking to the promotion of the cause whose beginning is celebrated, and so planned as to call into active co-operation all the agents and promoters of all our general interests, and so to appeal to the entire brotherhood. Besides, our general interests—education, missions, benevolence—are so vitally related and inter-related, that they must advance together to accomplish the largest and most permanent results. All of them, therefore, should share in the beneficence which should be the most prominent feature of the proposed centennial celebration.

We therefore recommend:

First—That our institutions of learning—colleges, Bible colleges and Bible chairs—make special efforts to increase their endowments and equipments, during the next seven years, to a point that will not only insure their perpetuity, but will greatly enhance their usefulness. It is for each college board to fix the amount it will attempt to raise as a centennial offering, if it sees proper to do so—and we think this would be wise—and it is for a great brotherhood to respond generously to their appeals. We recommend that our American Education Society co-operate in every possible way with college boards in carrying out their plans for endowment and in the formation of these plans. It would be a matter for regret if we should close the first century of our history with less than two millions of dollars invested in educational endowments.

Second—That we make an effort to raise our missionary offerings—home and foreign—to one million dollars annually, by the time of our centennial in 1909. This includes the offerings through the American Christian Missionary Society, the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, our State missionary societies, and the Christian Woman's Board of Missions. This is not too great growth to expect in our liberality to the holy cause of missions. In addition to this, our Church Extension Fund, that splendid feature of Home Missions, should be increased to a million dollars. Nothing would better serve to vindicate our plea for a return to the simplicity, power and divine aggressiveness of the primitive gospel, than to take our place in the front rank of Christian workers seeking the world's evangelization. Our statistician reports the present combined contributions for religious, benevolent and educational purposes, local and general, to be six million dollars. This sum should be swelled to ten millions by the time of our centennial in 1909.

Third—That our benevolent work, as represented by the National Benevolent Association, and such orphanages as are not associated with it, and by the Ministerial Relief Fund, taking us back, as it does, to the very heart of the gospel and emphasizing its practical value in ministering to the helpless, should be widened in the range of its beneficent activities and deepened in its foundations in the hearts of the brotherhood. We recommend, further, that these different branches of our benevolent work plan for some definite extension of their benevolence, and that their claims be recognized by the brotherhood, to the end that this neglected feature of our work be brought into line with our other general interests by the completion of our century of history.

Fourth—That our churches in the city and elsewhere, that contemplate building new houses of worship, avail themselves of the approaching centennial, with the view of securing special offerings, thus enabling them to erect buildings which shall be worthy monuments of the cause for which they stand, and which, when men shall ask, "What mean these stones?" or these memorial churches, will serve as a text for stating the meaning of the event they commemorate. Also that churches which are in debt make special efforts to liquidate all their indebtedness before our centennial.

Fifth—That we seek to inaugurate and carry forward a deeper and wider evangelism for the conversion of sinners, for the purification and strengthening of our churches, for pressing upon the consciences of men everywhere the demand of Christ for the unity of believers, and for a return to the purity and power of the primitive gospel. The blessing of God upon our evangelistic efforts is the divine call to increased organized activity and zeal in pressing the claims of Christ upon the hearts and consciences of the careless, the indifferent and the ungodly. The time is ripe for inaugurating, under wise direction, an evangelistic campaign, that will deepen the spiritual life of our churches and bring an increasing number of souls into the church and kingdom of Jesus Christ.

Sixth—That an annual report be made to this Convention, through a standing committee to be appointed for that purpose, of the progress made by each of these public enterprises in its centennial work, until the final report to the Convention in 1909.

Seventh—That our religious journals, which stand so closely related to all our public enterprises, and whose active co-operation is so essential to the carrying out of the recommendations in this report, be more generally patronized, that by their increased circulation their usefulness may be proportionately increased in helping forward all our general interests, and that they may be worthy representatives, in the field of religious journalism, of the cause for which they stand. Any decline of interest in our religious papers, or any lowering of the standard of journalism on their part, would be a serious calamity to the cause we are seeking to commend to the world.

Eighth—That at the National Convention next preceding that of the centennial year, a committee of representative brethren be appointed to prepare and publish, in connection with the proceedings of our centennial Convention, a memorial to the Christian world. urging the importance of Christian unity in order to the world's evangelization and the extirpation of those evils which curse our Christian civilization. This trumpet-call by a great religious body, calling the attention of believers everywhere to the great duties and demands of our time, would be carried to the world by the daily press, and by a large part of the religious press, and would serve probably to hasten the fulfillment of our Lord's prayer for the oneness of his disciples.

.. Ninth—Finally, we recommend and urge that our ministers and public teachers, and our religious papers, call our people to a truer exemplification of our high claims, as restorers of a purer Christianity, by purer living; by more earnest and systematic study of God's word; by habitual prayer, laying hold of the unseen forces which make for spiritual growth and the deepening of the spiritual life; by giving the kingdom of God and its righteousness the supreme place in our thought and our affections; by greater sacrifices for its triumph in the world; by resisting, steadfastly and in all legitimate ways, those great public evils of our time which debauch and degrade men, corrupt politics and legislation, and hinder the progress of Christianity; by giving heed to those things which will strengthen the bond of unity among ourselves, and avoiding all unprofitable disputations which gender strife; in a word, that we seek to realize, in our individual characters, in our civil relations, in our local church life, and in our co-operative efforts, the high aims and ends which our fathers had in view in inaugurating the religious movement now rounding out a century of splendid history.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. GARRISON, BENJAMIN L. SMITH,
A. MCLEAN, CHAS. P. KANE.

On motion of J. H. Hardin, the report was adopted and the committee made a standing committee to report from year to year until this work is finished.

E. L. Powell, of Kentucky, addressed the Convention on "Christian Union, the Paramount Issue."

Dr. E. B. Sanford, of New York, was introduced to the Convention by J. H. Garrison, on behalf of Christian federation.

J. H. Garrison introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we, representatives of the Disciples of Christ in convention assembled, having heard with pleasure the presentation of the claims of the federation of churches in the United States, as urged by the National Secretary of the Federation movement, Dr. E. B. Sanford, do hereby express our cordial approval of the effort to bring the churches of this country into closer co-operation, and to give truer expression to the unity which already exists, as the best means of promoting that complete unity for which our Lord prayed; and we pledge our hearty co-operation with this and every other movement that has for its object the unification of believers, to the end that the world may be converted, and the kingdom of righteousness established in all the earth.

On motion of Carey E. Morgan, the resolution was reconsidered, and after full discussion again adopted.

Adjourned with prayer by Clinton Lockhart.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 22.—MORNING.

The session opened at 9:15, with Prest. H. O. Breeden in the chair. T. W. Pinkerton, of Utah, conducted the devotional service, with F. H. Cappa, of Kentucky, leader of song.

G. W. Hoffmann presented the following report as Statistical Secretary:

STATISTICAL REPORT.

The growth of any religious body depends on three things: First, the Scriptural truths emphasized by its representative men. Second, the ability, enthusiasm and power with which these truths are presented. Third, the wisdom, the organization and the care taken of those brought into the church. The Disciples of Christ are pre-eminently successful so far as the first and second points are concerned. The strength of the plea for Christian union and the creed of the word of God, which needs no revision, is irresistible. The force, character and aggressive spirit of our ministry back of these truths, bring success and victory wherever presented. By careful computation there have been 82,000 confessions, baptisms and additions from denominations in our work for the last year. This does not include changes or reclamations of our own membership, but simply the new material coming into our churches. About fifty of these were ministers of the gospel who had a creditable standing among their own people. Large as this number of additions appears, it is only limited by the fact that we have not nearly so many ministers in the field at work as conditions and fields ripe for the harvest require. We have during the year dedicated over 200 houses of worship and organized 250 new congregations. All these things go to show the aggressive spirit of our ministry. When we reach the third point, however, where wisdom is required to direct, where organization, drilling, care and practical methods are needed to build up and develop those who have been brought to Christ, we are not as efficient as we are in recruiting and enlisting or bringing to Christ. For this reason when we come to net gains they do not show nearly so large as these accessions would indicate. The gain, however, continues normal, and indicates nearly three per cent. The reports as gathered from the various State secretaries are as follows:

	1901.	1902.	GAIN.
No. Churches	10,873	10,957	84
No. Communicants	1,179,541	1,207,377	26,836
No. Bible Schools	8,002	8,271	269
No. Scholars, Officers and Teachers	774,544	796,699	22,158
No. Ministers	6,385	6,477	94

Our National Missionary Societies show but little change in their receipts over last year—two of them reporting a gain and two showing a small loss. The returns, however, from the States, show a very commendable growth in receipts, and taking the returns as a whole, our missionary forces have taken another step in advance of any former year. One of the most gratifying and hopeful indications in the growth of benevolence among the churches is the fact that our National Benevolent Association raised nearly three times as much this year as they did in any year previous in their history. There has been no great advancement in the endowment of, or additional buildings in our schools, and yet more than an average year's progress has been made. Receipts for missions and benevolence are as follows:

MISSIONARY.
Foreign Christian Missionary Society	$178,324
Christian Woman's Board of Missions	139,034
American Christian Missionary Society	82,931
Board of Church Extension	54,866
State and District Missions	154,059
Miscellaneous Missions	15,000	$ 624,214
EDUCATION AND BENEVOLENCE.
Buildings and Endowments of Schools	$175,000
Homes for Orphans, the Aged, etc	72,332
Ministerial Relief	7,421	$ 254,753
LOCAL CHURCH WORK.
Ministerial Support	$3,665,000
Incidental Church Expenses	760,000
Church Buildings	550,000
Church and Bible-school Literature	340,000	$5,315,000
Total from all sources		$6,193,967

One of the most remarkable features of the growth of the Church of Christ is the progress of our missionary work. In the year 1874 there was one National Missionary Society. Now there are four. This Society raised in 1874, $4,671. Last year the four societies raised $464,902. Thus the growth in missionary giving to National Society work is one hundred times as large as it was twenty-seven years ago in our churches. Let us take courage and thank God for this enlargement in our missionary giving.

Fraternally submitted,

G. A. HOFFMANN, Stat. Sec.

PLACE OF NEXT MEETING.

F. E. Udell, of Missouri, presented the report of the Committee on Place of Next Meeting as follows:

Your Committee on Place for Holding the National Convention in 1903 beg to recommend Detroit, Mich., and to reaffirm the decision to hold the Convention of 1904 in St. Louis.

J. F. GHORMLEY, E. C. BROWNING,
GEO. P. RUTLEDGE, J. G. WAGGONER,
A. C. CORBIN, F. E. UDELL,
Committee.

The report was adopted.

Benjamin Lyon Smith, Corresponding Secretary, introduced the following missionaries to the Society: T. W. Pinkerton, of Utah; J. L. Haddock, Louisiana; E. C. Browning, Arkansas; J. K. Hester, Nebraska; Arthur T. Edwards, Oklahoma; B. B. Sanders, Texas; J. F. Ghormley, Oregon; Z. O. Doward, Nebraska; E. A. Orr, South Dakota; J. W. Marshall, Texas; W. M. Taylor and wife, Porto Rico; G. T. Black, Indian Territory; O. P. Spiegel, Louisiana; S. J. Corey, New York; W. F. Cowden, Washington.

Frank L. Bowen, of Missouri, addressed the Convention on "Methods of City Evangelization." J. E. Lynn, of Illinois, delivered an address on "Multiplying Our Congregations in the Smaller Cities." Geo. B. Ranshaw, the new Assistant Corresponding Secretary, was introduced to the Convention and delivered an address on "An Introduction to Home Mission Work."

Adjourned with prayer by W. S. Stairs, of Iowa.

AFTERNOON.

J. W. Hilton, of Nebraska, conducted the devctional service.

J. T. Boone spoke on behalf of the church in Jacksonville, Fla.

Prest. Scott Butler, of Butler University, delivered an address on "College and University."

The Chair appointed F. G. Tyrrell, of Missouri; F. L. Moffett, of Iowa; N. S. Haynes, of Illinois, and Wm. Oeschger, of Indiana, a committee on reception of the flag donated to the Convention by Dr. S. M. Johnson, of the "Christian Conquest" movement.

CHRISTIAN CONQUEST FLAG.

The committee reported as follows:

Your Committee to formulate an acceptance of the Christian Conquest flag would report as follows:

1. We gratefully accept the splendid flag presented by Rev. S. M. Johnson, and heartily endorse the grand idea for which it stands.

2. We feel that the design, a red cross on a white corner and the stirring motto on the blue ground, "By this sign conquer," is most appropriate and inspiring.

3. The flag means victory through union, co-operation and loyalty, and as it is already being gladly and enthusiastically adopted by other religious bodies, we rejoice to fall into line under one banner, with increased devotion to our one Master.

4. Believing in the right use of symbols and banners, we appeal to our own brethren and to the entire household of faith to welcome and adopt the Christian Conquest flag, and to cultivate the spirit of aggressive loyalty to Jesus Christ which it represents, with the hope that the blended sentiments of religion and patriotism will hasten the day when all God's people are one, with not only one flag, but "one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of us all," and ultimate victory through blessed unity.

FRANK G. TYRRELL, CHAS. A. YOUNG,
F. L. MOFFETT, WM. OESCHGER,
N. S. HAYNES, Committee.

The report was adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

J. H. Mohorter, of Massachusetts, read the following report of the Committee on Resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we are profoundly grateful to our Father in heaven for the remarkable success with which he has crowned our efforts to extend the kingdom among men, both at home and abroad, during the year. We note with especial gratitude the constantly growing interest on the part of the brotherhood in the great work of missions, as the chief business of the Church of Christ on earth.

2. Resolved, That we recognize the arduous character of the duties devolving upon our secretaries, and we desire to give hearty expression to our grateful appreciation of the faithful and efficient manner in which they have discharged these duties. We pledge ourselves to a fuller and heartier co-operation with them in the great work to which our great brotherhood and God have called them.

3. Resolved, That our heartiest thanks are due to the churches of Omaha and vicinity, and their committees, for the tireless energy and painstaking care with which they have wrought and for the munificent hospitality they have accorded us, making this one of the greatest Conventions in the history of the Disciples of Christ, if not the greatest religious convention ever held upon the American continent. We desire to acknowledge our indebtedness to the citizens of Omaha, especially the social committee of five hundred ladies and gentlemen, from all churches and from no church, who, with Miss Melona Butterfield as leader, have done much to add to our enjoyment and comfort while in their midst. We wish to extend our thanks to Mr. Lininger for his kindness in offering his private art gallery to us; to the newspapers of the city for the generous and appreciative manner in which they reported the proceedings of the Convention; to the various railroad representatives for liberal concessions in rates and many other courtesies; to Mr. Gus Renze, the custodian of the Coliseum, for his many efforts to add to the comfort of the Convention; to the ushers for the faithful performance of difficult duties, and to the policemen on duty about the building for their polite and kindly services in aiding in the work of preserving order. We wish to thank the ministers and churches of Omaha for their Christian courtesy in offering their pulpits to members of this Convention on Lord's Day, and we desire to mention especially the pastor and people of the Knox Presbyterian Church, who have been especially kind to the management and members of this Convention.

4. We recommend, in view of the growing intelligence among the people, and the problems that confront the church in this generation, thus requiring a wiser and better trained leadership, that we encourage in every way the brightest and most promising young men of our churches to enter the ministry, and, while recognizing the splendid work that all our colleges are doing, that we seek in every way to strengthen the hands of our educational forces and encourage our young people to attend our own institutions of learning.

5. WHEREAS, The brethren in Jacksonville, Fla., have suffered severe losses in the destruction of a large part of that city by fire, including their church building and many of the homes and business places of the members; and

Whereas, The church in Jacksonville is a child of the American Christian Missionary Society; and

Whereas, In the midst of its poverty it has undertaken to build a house for the worship of God; and

Whereas, The members have gone to the limit of their ability, and the building is not yet completed, requiring an additional sum of not less than $10,000 to fit it for use; therefore,

Resolved, That we owe a debt of obligation to that church, in its severe affliction, which has not been adequately discharged, and that we urge upon the brethren and churches who have not yet responded to the appeal made in behalf of our brethren in that city, by our General Board, to do so at once, that our cause in that gateway to Florida may be permanently established, and that we may furnish the world another illustration that Christ's disciples bear each others' burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ.

6. Resolved, That we heartily approve the action of the national and local managers of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, the World's Fair to be held at St. Louis in 1904, in closing the gates on the Lord's Day. By this enlightened policy they have commended the Fair to the patronage and support of all good people. We further express our satisfaction with the purpose of the management to keep out all objectionable and demoralizing features.

7. Resolved, That, as the children of God, we are profoundly thankful to our loving heavenly Father for his overshadowing providence that has permitted these thousands of his children to gather from all parts of the country, that they might spend these days in delightful fellowship without the slightest accident to mar the pleasure and happiness of the occasion, saving us from what threatened to be a great catastrophe. We suggest that the president of this Convention appoint some one to lead us at this time in a prayer of thanksgiving to Almighty God, the Giver of all good.

L. L. CARPENTER, | BRUCE BROWN,
C. B. NEWNAN, | J. H. MOHORTER,

The report was adopted. Prof. Clinton C. Lockhart led in prayer, and the Convention adjourned.

Geo. L. Snively spoke on behalf of the National Benevolent Association.

T. N. Kincaid spoke on behalf of the Hot Springs Sanitarium.

Dr. S. M. Johnson made a brief address on behalf of the Christian Conquest movement.

EVENING.

After a song service led by W. E. M. Hackleman, C. M. Chilton, of Missouri, addressed the Convention on "Church Extension;" and J. C. Mason, of Texas, spoke on "The Called According to His Purpose."

Adjourned with prayer by M. J. Ferguson, of California.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23.—MORNING.

Devotional service led by Howard Cramblet, of Iowa.

J. H. Lockwood, of Ohio, and W. C. Weeden, of Hawaii, were introduced to the Convention, and made brief addresses.

H. D. McAneney, of California, delivered an address on "Boys' and Girls' Rally Day."

B. B. Tyler, of Colorado, conducted a conference on "Christian Union," which was participated in by a number of brethren.

Adjourned with prayer by A. McLean.

AFTERNOON.

The Convention met in three sections.

The first section met in the Knox Presbyterian Church, and listened to addresses on benevolences. J. H. Hardin presided.

The second section, presided over by J. V. Coombs, met in Convention Hall, and considered phases of pastoral and evangelistic work.

The third section, in the North Side Christian Church, was presided over by W. F. Richardson, and was devoted to the cause of education.

EVENING.

An inspiring consecration service was led by H. O. Denton, of Missouri.

H. O. BREEDEN, Prest.

I. J. CAHILL, Rec. Sec.

MINUTES OF THE GENERAL BOARD OF THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The General Board of the American Christian Missionary Society met in regular session at the First Christian Church in Omaha, Neb., Oct. 18, 1902.

The meeting was called to order by the president, W. J. Russell. J. H. Garrison led in prayer. In the absence of the regular secretary, Prof. Clinton J. Lockhart was chosen secretary pro tempore.

Committees were appointed as follows: On Enrollment: N. S. Haynes, Geo. A. Miller, W. O. Moore; on Nominations, J. H. Hardin, C. G. McNeill, M. E. Harlan.

The annual report of the Acting Board of Managers was presented by the corresponding secretary, Benjamin Lyon Smith. Upon motion, the report was adopted and recommended to the Convention as the report of the General Board.

The report of the Board of Church Extension was then presented by the corresponding secretary, G. W. Muckley. On motion, the report was adopted and recommended to the Convention.

The report of the Board of Ministerial Relief was then read by the secretary, A. L. Orcutt. Upon motion, the report was adopted and referred to the Convention.

The report of the National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor was read by C. H. Plattenburg, of Cleveland, on behalf of the superintendent, John E. Pounds. In his report the superintendent tendered his resignation. On motion, the report was adopted and referred to the Convention.

J. A. Lord presented a memorial from the Prohibition mass-meeting, requesting a place in the annual Convention for an address on the liquor traffic and its effect upon evangelistic progress. On motion, referred to the Committee on Recommendations.

The report of the statistical secretary, G. A. Hoffmann, was presented. On motion, the report was adopted and referred to the Convention.

The Committee on Enrollment of the Board reported sixty-nine members present.

The Committee on Nominations reported recommending for chairman of the Board, A. I. Myhr, of Tennessee, and for secretary, E. H. Kellar, of Missouri. On motion, the report was adopted.

On motion, the corresponding secretary and the secretary-elect were instructed to secure the records of this Board and have them present at the meetings of the Board.

On motion, the Committee on Recommendations was instructed to consider the suggestion that an Evangelistic Bureau, or department of our general work, be organized. Moved, as a substitute, that a committee be appointed to consider this suggestion and report to this Board at its next annual meeting. The substitute carried. The Chair appointed as this committee: H. O. Breeden, J. H. Garrison, B. B. Tyler, J. A. Lord and Benjamin L. Smith.

W. T. Moore moved that this Board recommend to the Convention that the General Convention be omitted in 1903, and that this Board convene in regular annual session. Motion lost.

On motion, the request of the St. Louis churches that the meeting of the Convention in that city be deferred to 1904, was referred to the Committee on Recommendations, with the request that it be given favorable consideration.

Adjourned. W. J. RUSSELL, Pres.

CLINTON J. LOCKHART, Sec. pro tem.
